Missing U.S. Aides May Be In Havana

One Of Two Gone From Agency Is Ex-Marinite

Two vanished employees of the super-secret National Security Agency—one of them a former San Rafael resident—were believed to have gone to Cuba after dropping from sight on June 24.

Informed sources in the Defense Department, of which the NSA is an intelligence arm, were quoted by United Press International as saying the men are believed likely to be still in Havana.

BERNON F. MITCHELL
Former Marinite

No word of him

The two are Bernon F. Mitchell, 31, of Eureka, grandson of Mrs. E. Forrest Mitchell of Belvedere, and William H. Martin, 29, of Ellensburg, Wash. They have not been heard from since they left Washington June 24, saying they were going to visit relatives on the West Coast. Relatives of Mitchell in Marin County said today they had received no word from him.

TRACED TO MEXICO

Both men are mathematicians for the NSA and would have had access to top secret information.

The pair was traced to Mexico City and there believed to have gone to Cuba.

(Reports from Havana said a check of the leading hotels failed to turn up any trace of the missing men. The U.S. embassy said it had no information on their whereabouts.)

Mitchell and Martin were due back at work July 11 and 18 respectively. They have not contacted their families or the agency since they left.

UNCLE'S NAMESAKE

Mitchell was the namesake of his uncle, the late Bernon F. Mitchell of Belvedere. His cousin, Emery Mitchell of 370 Bella Vista Avenue, Belvedere, said today he had spoken to the missing man's family in Eureka last night, and they were "quite concerned."

Emery Mitchell said his cousin once lived in San Rafael and attended grammar school here. Bernon visited his grandmother in Belvedere last summer.

At the request of the Defense Department, Mitchell and Martin were listed in the missing persons section of the Federal Bureau of Investigation files. But the FBI said there was no indication that any federal law had been violated, and they were not checking on the whereabouts of the two men.

The Defense Department said men answering the description of Mitchell and Martin had booked passage for Mexico City June 25. A check of Mexico City hotels Monday showed they had registered there but later had left.

Mitchell, a Stanford University graduate, and Martin, a University of Washington graduate, served in the Navy together and were employed by the National Security Agency the same day, July 8, 1957. Both are bachelors.

Novato School Bond Vote May Be In October

Residents in the Novato Unified School District may go to the polls Oct. 4 to vote on a bond issue, tax rate limit and authorization of a state loan.

The date for the election, tentatively planned for the first Tuesday in October, will be set by district trustees meeting at 8 o'clock at the district office.

Supt. W.J.J. Smith declined to estimate the amount of the bond election, noting that trustees still must decide whether the funds would finance a three, five or seven-year building program.

The bond issue would be combined with a request for voter authorization of a state loan.

Also up for consideration will be a tax rate limit. The district's maximum basic rate of $3.23, approved by voters will run out in June, 1951, at which time the rate would revert back to $1.65 per $100 assessed valuation.

Total tax rate for the last fiscal year was $4.03, including a $3.16 basic rate.

Final budget figures will be decided tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO OR BUST — The bike-riding Lemmon family from Seattle, Wash., gets ready to leave San Anselmo for San Francisco after a one-night stay in the Hub City on their 2,000-mile round trip. Front to rear are Mrs. Zady Lemmon: Lanea, 6; Randy and John, 10; Miss Yukiko Ito, 28, a family friend; and Jay Lemmon, Connie Monroe and Bernie Lemmon, all 11.

FAMILY TRIP

Bike-Riding 'Vagabonds' Pause In Hub

A bike-riding family from Seattle, Wash., including a 6-year-old girl, rolled into San Anselmo last night for a brief stay on their 2,000-mile round trip to San Francisco.

The only trouble encountered in Marin County was a lost hub nut on one of the bikes that stalled the family until San Anselmo police could help round up another.

The "family" is led on the ride by Mrs. Zady Lemmon—owner, appropriately enough of the Vagabond Telephone Answering and Letter Service of Seattle.

Trailing in riding formation are daughter, Lanea, the 6-year-old, two sons, Randy and John, both 10; Yukiko Ito, 28, a family friend; and Jay Lemmon, Connie Monroe, and Bernie Lemmon, all 11 years of age.

Mrs. Lemmon said the group has camped and stayed in private homes at night on the 900 miles from Portland via Bend, Crater Lake, Eureka, San Rafael and San Anselmo. They made the first leg of the journey, from Seattle to Portland, by truck.

Reason for the trip: She said that after seven years of steady work at the answering service she decided she could "be a 'vagabond' like her customers" for a while. She estimates that the family expenses for the trip have come close to the $100 per week cost of staying home.

Plans for the return are to travel through Sacramento,

Five Juveniles Admit Spree Of Thievery

Five Kentfield juveniles have admitted a month-long burglary and vandalism spree, the sheriff's department announced today.

The members—two sisters and three boys—have cleared nine burglaries in the Kentfield Corners business district. Their ages: 11 to 16 years old.

Inspector William Bradley and Deputy John J. Harris broke up the gang yesterday after the burglary of the College Market in Kentfield.

Bradley and Harris found the loot from the market hidden in bushes on the banks of Corte Madera Creek. There were 25 bottles of liquor and wine, 36 cans of beer, and numerous cigarettes and cigars. The bottles were still full.

Hiding in the blackberry bushes, the two sheriff's officers waited more than an hour for the burglars to return.

A car containing three youth was stopped. Two of the boys, aged 16 and 14, who later admitted being the gang's ringleaders, were handcuffed.

"I know what you want to talk about," the older boy said. "I want to tell you everything."

The youth led the officers to the loot and then named an 11-year-old boy and his two sisters, 16 and 13, as accomplices.

During questioning, the five youths admitted the following crimes, according to Inspector Bradley:

The two ringleaders broke into the Kent School in July and took about $16 and a pass key. They returned several times after making a duplicate key.

The gang ransacked the Tamalpais Women's Center, spraying the fire extinguisher, shattering windows and searching for food.

Two of the boys broke into their ringleader's house on July 29 looking for something to drink and stole costume jewelry from the mother's room.

The next day they ripped a screen and climbed into Ray's Restaurant in Kentfield, taking cigarettes and $20 in change.

That night the 11-year-old was boosted through a small hole at the rear of the College Market. He passed the liquor and beer out to his accomplices and they cached it in the creek.

One of the ringleaders and his girl broke a window and

96-Cent Tax Rate To Hold In San Rafael

San Rafael's city tax rate for 1960-61 will again be 96 cents per $100 assessed valuation, the same as for the last three years.

The city council set the rate last night without argument or dissent.

Of the total, 60 cents is for general fund, 12 cents for parks and recreation, 11 cents for library, 10 cents for employee retirement and three cents to retire the Albert Field bonds.

Residents of the Los Ranchitos, Loch Lomond and Parnow annexations will pay only 93 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Those areas were exempted from payment on the Albert Field bonds under terms of their annexation by a former council.

Belgium Starting Pullout In Congo

U.N. Will Occupy Katanga

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — Belgium began a limited withdrawal of soldiers from the Congo today. Belgian soldiers number 1,500 began moving out of Kamina, a huge land and air base in Katanga province, for the flight home.

The repatriation program, announced in Brussels Friday, will leave about 8,500 Belgian soldiers in this former Belgian colony.

VARIOUS POINTS

Many of them are stationed in Katanga, which has proclaimed its independence. Others are at various points in the Congolese territory still loyal to Premier Patrice Lumumba's central government.

The United Nations Security Council called July 21 for a quick withdrawal of all the Belgian forces. Lumumba has demanded that they get out immediately, quitting their treaty bases as well as the rest of the country. The Premier contends Belgium violated the Belgian-Congolese friendship treaty by sending in reinforcements that helped stem the July troubles.

U.N. TO MOVE IN

Congolese leaders said they have received assurances that U.N. forces will move into Katanga by the end of the week. Justice Minister Remey Mwamba reported the only question delaying the entry is the composition of the U.N. contingent. The U.N. wants to send in white troops, the Congolese favor blacks.

The U.N. Command took a hands off attitude toward bloody tribal warfare reported in the Congo's Kasai province.

The Command stressed that the Security Council had sent in the international force so Belgian soldiers could withdraw, and that tribal disturbances are an internal matter for the Congo government and its army, "not a mandate of the U.N. forces."

WORST FLAREUP

Belgian officials said the warfare—between the traditionally hostile Lulua and Baluba tribes in Kasai, east of Leopoldville—was the worst flareup in the history of the two tribes.

Unconfirmed reports said hundreds had been killed in the battling with bows and arrows, clubs and torches. Baluba tribesmen were reported in flight, some to adjoining Katanga province, which has proclaimed its independence of Premier Patrice Lumumba's central government.

SEN. KENNEDY, TRUMAN MAKE UP, WILL CONFER

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy made peace today with former President Harry S. Truman in a telephone call, and announced he will visit Truman in Independence, Mo., this month.

"I talked to President Truman by telephone and he was generous enough to say he would help us," Kennedy told a news conference.

Truman had refused to attend the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles in protest against Kennedy's campaigning for the nomination. He said the convention had been rigged for Kennedy's benefit.

After the convention, however, Truman announced he was willing to support the ticket. This was his first direct communication with Kennedy, however.

Tam High Tax Rate May Drop 8 Cents

Increased assessed valuation in the Tamalpais Union High School district will mean at least an eight-cent drop in the district's basic tax rate, Board Chairman William B. Lewis of San Anselmo said last night.

Trustees of the district approved a $3,863,097 budget for 1960-61. Despite the fact that the budget total is approximately $300,000 more than last year's, the tax rate—not including special over-ride taxes—will drop from $1.90 per $100 assessed valuation to no more than $1.82 and perhaps less, trustees said. An exact figure must await publication of final assessment figures.

Largest item in the $300,000 budget increase is $212,000 for teacher salaries.

Protests were heard last night from Mr. and Mrs. Tom McDougall of Mill Valley. McDougall asked the board to reconsider its plans for a three-million-dollar bond election on Oct. 11. The bond issue, if approved, would provide money to expand the districts three schools and buy a site for a fourth. Chairman Lewis said higher assessment figures help provide money for operating expenses but a bond issue is still necessary to provide construction money.

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle reported that 1,725 students attended summer session, approximately half of the district's regular enrollment. Last year 1,389 were enrolled in summer session.

BALKY VEHICLE FOUND TO HAVE BOMB IN BONNET

Charles A. Reneau of 21 Meadow Drive, Mill Valley, couldn't start his car this morning.

He called Mill Valley Motors for help. A. M. Dilsaver of the motor firm drove to the Reneau residence and lifted the hood of the car. Then he and Reneau both blanched at what they saw.

Beneath the hood was a bomb.

Investigation disclosed, however, that the bomb, loaded with firecracker powder, was less than lethal. Reneau turned it over to the sheriff's office and drove on to work. Sheriff's officers said the bomb apparently was placed in the car as a prank.

De Gaulle, Adenauer Want Reform In Atlantic Pact

BONN (UPI)—French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer want a reform of the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance it was announced today.

The two men agreed to work for such a reform at their meeting last week at Rambouillet Castle, de Gaulle's hunting lodge 30 miles southwest of Paris, a Bonn government spokesman said.

"Both statesmen were agreed that it would be useful, without haste and at the proper time, to effect a reform of the Atlantic system," the spokesman told a press conference.

Adenauer today outlined to his cabinet details of his talks with de Gaulle.

The government spokesman made it clear the chancellor wants details to be kept from the public, and favors secret diplomacy until other NATO allies have been informed of the plans he and de Gaulle discussed.

NIXON STARTS CAMPAIGN—Vice President Richard M. Nixon is greeted by Sen. Hiram Fong (R-Hawaii) as he arrives at Washington National Airport to take off on his first presidential campaign swing. In center are Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton and Mrs. Nixon. The senator and the secretary are accompanying the Nixons on the five-day trip that will include stops at Los Angeles, Whittier, Hawaii and Seattle. (AP Wirephoto)

Nixon Says He'll Stick To Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon today accused Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic rival for the presidency, of following "the low road in the campaign" by discussing personalities instead of issues.

Kennedy at a news conference at Hyannis Port, Mass., yesterday had charged Nixon with a "lack of basic beliefs" and a "betrayal" of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson's farm policies which Nixon "now wants to disown."

Asked for comment on Kennedy's statements, the Republican presidential nominee replied: "We'll let the people judge that."

"Mr. Kennedy started on the low road in the campaign. He intends to keep on it," he added.

"I am not going to engage in personalities. Regardless of what he does I'm going to stay on the issues."

Nixon talked with newsmen a few minutes before his chartered plane left National Airport on the first leg of a strenuous campaign.

The Republican nominee said he was starting what would be "the most intensive and I guess you can say also the most extensive campaign, ever conducted for the presidency."

He began the Western swing after aligning himself against any big spending measures Democrats might pass to win votes.

Nixon said President Eisenhower plans to veto any massive spending bills the Democratic - controlled Congress might vote for "purely political" reasons after it reconvenes next week. He said he agrees with Eisenhower on this.

Nixon's five-day trip will include a visit tonight to Nixon's hometown of Whittier, a traditional campaign stop and a two-day tour of Hawaii, the nation's newest state.

But the first stop will be to honor Mrs. Nixon. Her native state has planned a "Pat Nixon Day" at Reno, Nev.

Before heading for the campaign trails, Nixon visited Eisenhower late yesterday at the summer White House at Newport, R.I.

Henry Cabot Lodge, the GOP vice presidential nominee, accompanied Nixon on the trip to Newport.

U.S. Rejects Soviet Arms Parley Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —A U.S. spokesman last night rejected a Soviet call for an all-United Nations summit parley on disarmament as a "typically specious and frivolous maneuver." But some diplomats at the U.N. still hoped it might bring President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev together at the conference table.

Chief U.S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge brushed off the Soviet proposal at a news conference at the summer White House in Newport, R.I. Presumably he spoke with the President's authorization.

U.S. PROPOSAL

The Soviet proposal accompanied a Kremlin objection of the American proposal that the 82-member U.N Disarmament Commission be called into session this month Lodge said the Soviet reply showed the Soviets "really don't want disarmament."

"The United States made its proposal in good faith," Lodge declared, but the Soviet counter proposal amounts to "a cynical attempt to prevent progress."

Soviet Ambassador Platon D. Morozov called for the summit disarmament meeting in a letter yesterday to Luis Padilla Nervo of Mexico, chairman of the disarmament commission.

PROPER LEVEL

Rejecting Padilla Nervo's call for a commission meeting Aug. 15, Morozov asserted that disarmament talks could only be successful if held at the proper level.

"The Soviet government believes that personal participation of the heads of government of member states of the United Nations in the discussion of the disarmament problem at the General Assembly would answer this purpose best of all," the Soviet letter said.

Diplomats at the U.N. were intrigued by the reversal of Khrushchev's stand after the abortive Paris conference that he would not negotiate with the United States at the summit until Eisenhower left the White House.

Three States Going To Polls In Primaries

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Primaries featured the political scene in three states—Michigan, Kansas and Missouri—as Democrats and Republicans went to the polls to name their party choices for congressional and local offices today.

With G. Mennen Williams deciding against seeking re-election after an unprecedented six terms, Michigan Democrats had a three-way contest for governor between Secretary of State James M. Hare, Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson and Detroit City Councilman E. D. Connor.

GOP CANDIDATE

Michigan State University Professor Paul D. Bagwell was unopposed for governor on the Republican ticket, but vying for the GOP nomination to oust incumbent Democratic U. S. Sen. Patrick V. McNamara were U.S. Rep. Alvin M. Bentley and former Detroit and State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard.

In Kansas, the Republican primary had a three-way race for governor between McDill Huck Boyd, publisher of a weekly newspaper, State Atty. Gen. John Anderson and State Rep. W. H. (Bill) Addington.

KANSAS SCENE

Democratic Gov. George Docking of Kansas had no primary opposition in his bid for an unprecedented third term. Two Democrats, Lt. Gov. Joseph Henkle and Frank Theis, were after the nomination to run against the probable GOP choice for the U.S. Senate-incumbent Andrew F. Schoeppel.

Missouri's Democratic Atty. Gen. John M. Dalton appeared headed for an easy victory as party nominee for governor.

A tighter contest loomed on the Republican side, with Missouri State Reps. Edward G. Farmer Jr., and William B. Ewald battling it out.

Johnson Support By Labor Sought

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy hoped today for an early formal endorsement from organized labor for his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Kennedy won the Democratic presidential nomination with strong backing from labor unions. His choice of Johnson of Texas to run for the vice presidency jolted many of his union backers. Some still are reported to be far from happy about it.

Kennedy scheduled meetings with Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, closely allied with the AFL-CIO and the powerful United Auto Workers Union. The senator also planned to confer with Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut and John M. Bailey, chairman of the Connecticut Democratic Committee.

David J. McDonald, president of the 1,100,000-member United Steelworkers Union, said here yesterday he expects labor will support Johnson. McDonald had not been in Johnson's corner prior to the convention.

But standing beside Kennedy at a news conference on the lawn of the senator's home, McDonald told reporters he believed Johnson's presence on the ticket would strengthen it.

The announced purpose of his visit was to discuss with Kennedy the plight of the steel industry, which the senator said is operating at only 53 per cent of capacity. Kennedy said Congress when it reconvenes Monday could help by passing housing and federal school construction legislation, and by acting to ease credit and reduce interest rates.

McDonald said 100,000 steelworkers are idle and 300,000 are working less than 40-hour weeks.

Kennedy accused the Republican presidential nominee, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, of a "lack of basic beliefs." His statement endorsed one released by his headquarters in the name of nine Midwestern Democratic governors and senators which asserted that Nixon "in the short span of 48 hours since his nomination has repudiated two key parts of the Eisenhower administration's program"—on defense spending and farm policy.

TWO ARRESTED

Labor Unrest Flares In Peach Orchard

OROVILLE (AP) — The arrest of two farm labor organizers in a peach orchard yesterday underlined the most intense agricultural labor struggle since the 1930s.

DeWitt Tannehill, 48, and Floyd Quick, 42, of the AFL-CIO Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee were charged with rioting and trespassing—both misdemeanor offenses—after pickets went into the Tom Bowers freestone peach orchard where Mexican braceros were working.

Up to 100 Mexicans had been certified to work at the orchard, and 82 were there yesterday. Picketing around the ranch began peacefully yesterday, watched by Butte County sheriff's deputies.

At 4:15 p.m., Sheriff Larry Gillick said, some 40 Americans, led by Tannehill and Quick, entered the orchard, upsetting ladders and fruit boxes. The Mexicans fled before their advance, resisted by half a dozen deputies, one of whom used a tear gas gun.

Gillick arrested the two AWOC men, along with three other Americans who were released on the spot with a warning. Tannehill and Quick were released last night on $1,000 bail. Their hearing was set for Friday morning in Gridley.

A hearing of the use of braceros in a strike situation by Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell in Washington was postponed yesterday from Aug. 8 to Aug. 22 at the request of AFL-CIO president George Meany.

Last week Secretary Mitchell refused a request for 300 braceros from the DiGiorgio Fruit Corp.'s ranch near here. DiGiorgio's pear orchards were being picketed.

Violence In South Korea Subsiding

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Political violence subsided in South Korea today, and leaders of the caretaker government and the victorious Democratic party decided to convene the new National Assembly on schedule.

Local newspapers had said the Assembly's first meeting would be postponed until Aug. 15 because of the mob violence and ballot box burning that erupted after Friday's parliamentary election and delayed results from 14 of the nation's 233 election districts.

But Prime Minister Huh Chung and three top leaders of the Democrats agreed at a meeting the Assembly would convene Aug. 8 to elect a new national president and prime minister, in accordance with the National Assembly law requiring the first meeting within 10 days of the election.

The Democrats, who won 174 of the 233 seats in the dominant lower house of the Assembly, by today had taken 29 of the 58 seats in the less powerful upper house, and nine seats were still to be decided.

Casting Revolution

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—A process that may revolutionize the casting of metal for art has been developed by Alfred Duca, a professional artist and a research associate in the Department of Metallurgy at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

According to the M. I. T. Observer it is the "first real innovation in the ancient art in 5,000 years."

To demonstrate the process, Duca carved foamed polystyrene, a light weight plastic that looks like snow, into the form of a winged Pegasus. This he buried in a sand mould. Then molten bronze was poured into the mould.

There was an eruption of smoke and blinding light as the metal vaporized the plastic and replaced it.

Britain Cold To Russ, Red China Offers

LONDON (UPI)—Britain today turned the cold shoulder to Moscow's summit offer and Peiping's Asian peace pact proposal.

Diplomatic sources believed both moves underlined the Communist camp's apparent unwillingness to embark now on genuine East-West negotiations for a settlement of concrete cold war issues.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's surprise plan for a summit at the United Nations was regarded as wholly impractical and an attempt to bypass serious negotiations on global disarmament.

Communist Chinese Premier in turn was considered designed to swing the power balance in the far east in Peiping's favor. Therefore it was unacceptable.

A Foreign Office spokesman said that in the British view it is "questionable" whether a head of government meeting would fulfill the objective of getting the disarmament talks restarted.

The spokesman also recalled that in the British view the proposal for a nuclear free zone in Asia was not practical because it does not meet the western demand for balanced disarmament.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The State of California gets final rights to unclaimed funds acquired in the business of selling and cashing checks.

The ruling has been made by Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk, and he says that it's retroactive to Jan. 1, 1949, under a 1959 law.

Social Security Payments In Marin Total $6.1 Million

The latest tabulation of federal Social Security beneficiaries shows that 7,557 Marin residents are being paid 6.1 million dollars a year, announced Charles H. Shreve, manager of the district office in San Francisco.

This tabulation made last Dec. 31 showed an increase of 9 per cent over a February 1959 count.

The Marin beneficiaries include 4,282 retired workers, 126 disabled workers, 1,098 spouses of retired or disabled workers, 870 widows or widowers, 12 dependent parents, 190 mothers with children, 979 children of retired, deceased or disabled workers.

Bay Cities Traffic Peak Flow Rises

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Peak hour automobile traffic into central cities of the Bay Area has increased almost 50 per cent in the past five years, according to the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

On a typical weekday morning in 1959, the district reported 73,268 automobiles flowed into San Francisco and the central East Bay Area.

This compared with 50,305 in 1954.

Larkspur Trustees Will Meet Tonight

Trustees of the Larkspur School District will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Larkspur-Corte Madera School to hold a public hearing on a $652,271 budget for 1960-61.

The district's tax rate of $1.35 per $100 assessed valuation, plus over-ride taxes, will bring the total estimated tax rate to $1.75.

FIDEL TAKING REST

Raul Castro May Take Over Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban government kept silent today on who will take over control from ailing Fidel Castro, but the best bet appeared to be his anti-American younger brother, Raul.

Authorities maintained tight-lipped secrecy following yesterday's disclosure that the bearded prime minister had laid aside his duties after his doctor ordered him to take a complete rest—"both physical and mental."

Inofrmed sources said Castro, 33, had been finally convinced that he must stop all work to hasten recovery from his three-week illness, officially described as a lung infection. Maj. Raul Trillo, one of two army doctors treating the prime minister, announced he was taking a complete rest, "both physical and mental."

Some Latin American quarters in Washington speculated that the announcement was meant to prepare Cuba for the prime minister's indefinite retirement from public life. There have been persistent reports in Havana—denied by sources close to the Cuban government — that Castro underwent a rectal operation and was found to be suffering from cancer.

Fidel soon after he came to power officially designated his younger brother as his political heir.

Raul, 28, Cuba's defense minister, has just returned from official visits to the Soviet Union, Communist Czechoslovakia and the United Arab Republic.

Before anyone takes over from Castro, the cabinet presumably will meet under President Osvaldo Dorticos and order the change. So far there was no indication any such meeting had been called.

Russ Missile Threat From Cuba Discussed

Combined AP & UPI

SAN DIEGO — What would the United States do if Russia shipped missiles capable of blasting American cities into Cuba?

That question was soberly asked yesterday by Lt. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau at the opening of the three-day conference of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences.

Trudeau, head of research and development for the Army, left little doubt with newsmen that he considered such a massing of Russian missiles in Cuba a possibility of the future.

Declaring he did not want to exaggerate the Cuban situation, Trudeau said, "But on the other hand a possible direct military threat from Cuba should not be underestimated."

Trudeau said he believed that mobile missiles possessed by Russia could be secretly taken into Cuba. However, he said he was hopeful intelligence agents would be able to give the United States some warning of such a move.

"With the fully mobile missiles Russia now has," Trudeau said, "launching pads would not have to be built in Cuba. The Soviet Union would have the capability of hitting many parts of the U.S."

Some 2,000 space age scientists are attending the conference sponsored jointly by the Army, Navy, Air Force and Department of Defense.

Earlier, the institute was told by armed services officers that rockets and automatically guided craft cannot make piloted planes obsolete.

New kinds of low-flying, low-speed planes with men at the controls are among the needs for future defense, they said.

Vice Adm. R. B. Pirie said the Navy is counting upon manned planes to help it move quickly during small crises.

Maj. Gen. Bruce K. Holloway, director of Air Force operational requirements, said he envisioned a piloted plane with the ability to take off and land on a runway 2,000 to 3,000 feet long and which could carry a nuclear warhead.

Flash floods cause from 200 million to 500 million dollars damage in the U. S. each year.

Seafarers' Haven

MILWAUKEE (AP)— Now that the St. Lawrence Seaway has been opened, a Roman Catholic chaplain has been named for the port of Milwaukee.

The chaplaincy of the Rev. David Ryan will be sponsored by the Apostleship of the Sea, a worldwide Catholic organization established to offer spiritual assistance to sailors away from home.

REVOLUTIONARY NEW PLAN—exclusive from Allstate

"Cancel-Proof" Auto Liability Insurance for Good Drivers

"Cancel-Proof" means that after your Allstate auto liability insurance has been in force 90 days it can't be cancelled because of accidents. (Any other company can cancel you with as little as 10 days' notice.)

Renewal is guaranteed in spite of accidents. Allstate guarantees this protection for as long as 5 years at a stretch. (No other company makes any guarantee of renewal.)

Accident-free driving, under the merit rate provisions of the plan, earns lower rates. The only accidents that raise your rates are those requiring us to make certain payments under your liability coverage (with other plans collision losses—usually traffic tickets—can raise your rates).

How the "Cancel-Proof" plan works

Are there any conditions? Yes, a few, but we are sure you'll recognize them as fair and reasonable, and aimed only at irresponsible drivers, who would abuse their privileges under this plan. These are the only conditions under which a motorist has this protection withdrawn:

If he or any member of his household is convicted or forfeits bail for: driving while under the influence of liquor or drugs; hit and run driving; committing vehicular homicide; stealing a car; or driving while license is suspended or revoked. Also if the insurance or driver's license application contains false statements; or if the insured person fails to assist the company in defending him against another person's liability claim. And naturally, if the premium is not paid when due.

This new plan applies only to individually owned passenger cars registered in this State, and is not available to Assigned Risks.

The cost of this insurance depends on the accident history of the policyholder and residents of his household while insured under this plan and the rates in effect at the time the premium is computed.

The only accidents that raise rates under this plan are those requiring Allstate to pay out $50 or more on a liability claim against the insured.

You're in good hands with Allstate . . . always

Why not get the benefit of this newest, most advanced kind of insurance at once? See an Allstate Agent at the Allstate Sales Office in Sears, at a convenient Allstate Insurance Center, or in your home, if you prefer. May we help you?

SPECIAL NOTE TO PRESENT ALLSTATE CRUSADER POLICYHOLDERS

Effective July 25, 1960, Allstate's "Cancel-Proof" plan, plus our guarantee of renewal, automatically apply to all Allstate Crusader policyholders in California whose liability protection has been carried with Allstate for 90 days. The rate provision of this new plan will apply to you at your next renewal. Watch for the special explanatory letter that's on its way to you.

Many Streets To Be Fixed In San Rafael

Just about every street in San Rafael that has not had a resurfacing job within the last three years will get one this year.

The San Rafael City Council last night approved a call for bids for resurfacing streets throughout the city, in what City Engineer Dominic J. Selmi estimated as a $30,000 program.

This year's list carries on the "preventive maintenance" program of Public Works Director Norris Rawles, aimed at preventing the necessity of regrading by keeping the roadways' surface in condition.

Scheduled for the treatment are:

Oakwood Drive from Baywood to end; Nye Street from Maple Street to Mission Avenue; Maple from Lincoln to Nye; Curtis Avenue from Nye to end; Lovell Avenue from Woodland Avenue to Irwin Street; Jones Place from Walsh Street to end; West Street from Jessup Street to end; Hillcrest Drive from Maple to Nye; Tamalpais Avenue from Laurel Place to Mission; Nye from Fifth Avenue to Mission; McCoy Street from Bungalow Avenue to Pole 24; Walsh its entire length; Clayton Street from Marin Street to upgrade; Chula Vista Drive from No. 36 to Coleman Drive; Coleman from Chula Vista to Vineyard Drive; Grand Avenue from Prospect Drive to Lincoln; Culloden Park Road from Forbes Avenue to end; Jewell Street from Grand to Ridge Avenue; Grand from Lincoln to highway; Wilkins Street from Mission to Laurel; Miraflores Avenue in circuit from and to Miramar Avenue, and B Street from Second Street to Woodland.

Omnibus Hearings Planned On Zoning In San Rafael

Mayor John F. McInnis last night put the San Rafael City Council in troubled zones for its Aug. 15 meeting.

The mayor set for that meeting public hearings on five rezoning matters. They are:

Rezoning the East San Rafael area between Rafael and Canal Streets from commercial-light industrial to apartment use. This has been argued back and forth for months, twice approved by the planning commission only to be rejected by the city council.

Rezoning Marquard Avenue near West End Avenue from single family to multiple residential.

Rezoning 125 feet of Bay View Street from duplex to apartment.

Rezoning California Division of Highways' surplus property on Francisco Boulevard and Highway 101 frontage road from heavy commercial-manufacturing to planned commercial-light industrial.

Rezoning to allow access from Alexander Avenue to Robert Doughan's commercial property at 2114 Fourth Street. This was approved last week by the planning commission but protested last night in a petition signed by 16 Alexander Avenue residents.

The council last night gave final approval to the Hess-DeLong strip annexation along Francisco Boulevard and to the final map of Terra Linda Subdivision 14.

Also at last night's council meeting:

1. All bids for supplying six new automobiles were rejected because bidders could not guarantee delivery. Councilman Fred Jensen argued the city should negotiate with the low bidder (Ames Ford Co.) but voted with the other four council members to reject the bids.

2. City Atty. A. E. Bagshaw said he would have ready for the next meeting a draft of a proposed rubbish dump control ordinance. It would provide rubbish must receive a six-inch cover every 30 days and a final two-foot cover, and that dumps must be fenced and provided with locked gates.

3. Protest of Mrs. Arthur G. Sweeten against a variance granted A. B. Vostigan for a substandard lot at 46 Mooring Road was put over to the Aug. 15 meeting.

4. James M. Hembree, 24, of Marina Boulevard, San Rafael, was hired as a junior civil engineer in the public works department, to start at $520 a month.

New Owners At Shoe Shop

Howard L. Van Orden Jr. of Ross and Gary S. Morey of San Anselmo yesterday took over ownership of the Junior Boot Shop of Marin, which has stores at 541 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, and 1414 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The stores were purchased from the Junior Boot Shops of San Francisco, a corporation.

Morey has been manager of the San Anselmo store for seven years and will continue to operative there. Van Orden, formerly a manufacturer's representative for industrial chemicals, also will be in the San Anselmo store. He said the new ownership will mean the same policies and service and same quality shoes as in the past.

John Walter will continue as manager of the San Rafael store.

COUNCIL PROGRAM

Nobody Likes Address On Frontage Road

Nobody, it seems, cares for an address on "Frontage Road," but Fairchild Semiconductor Corp. likes an address on Redwood Highway.

The San Rafael City Council last night received a petition from nine firms and individuals on Professional Center Parkway and along the Highway 101 frontage road in North San Rafael, asking that the city name the frontage road Civic Center Drive.

And it received two letters of protest from two officials of Fairchild Semiconductor Corp., which is on the frontage road. Fairchild, wrote Julius Blank, head of engineering services, and J. R. Yelverton, administration manager, wants to keep its address as 4300 Redwood Highway. The address, they wrote, appears that way in national advertising and on stationery and forms already printed.

Dr. William S. Neal of 11 Professional Center Parkway appeared in person to present the case for the name-changers. As things stand, he said, there's no way for him and his neighbors readily to direct travelers to their addresses. And the California Division of Highways says the frontage road, which eventually will extend from the Terra Linda interchange to the county civic center, will be labeled just that — "frontage road"—unless the City of San Rafael gives it a name.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said he had the assurance of Postmaster Warren H. Williams that Fairchild can keep on getting mail addressed to 4300 Redwood Highway if it so desires.

Mindful of the fact that Fairchild Semiconductor soon will be San Rafael's biggest industry, Councilman Louis H. Baar suggested the road might be named Fairchild Drive. Dr. Neal said he had no objection.

City Manager Andersen was given the job of working out a name-changing program that will satisfy all concerned.

Billfold With $150 Stolen From Desk

A burglar broke into Town and Country Interiors drapery store at 91 Red Hill Avenue in San Anselmo early Sunday and stole a billfold containing $150 from an office desk.

Police officer Allan Lee Perry said he found the store secure on his midnight round. Two hours later he found a rear window had been broken and the rear door unlocked.

The wallet was taken from the desk of store owner John N. Phelps. Nothing else was reported missing.

Suit Filed Against State Book Contract

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sacramento superior court has been asked to order the state not to buy six million textbooks from private publishers.

An attorney for some employes of the state printing plant filed the suit yesterday, contending the state's agreement to buy the books is illegal and too costly.

The State Board of Education this year authorized purchase of the privately printed reading texts from Ginn and Co., Allyn and Bacon and the American Book Co.

For 29 years all state basic textbooks have been printed from leased plates in the state printing plant.

Killer Due To Die Today Gets Stay From Douglas

The execution of Los Angeles double murderer Charles Earl Brubaker—set for today in San Quentin Prison—has been postponed indefinitely.

U. S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, contacted on vacation in Santa Barbara, granted a stay yesterday pending the high court's review of the case in October.

He acted on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus which the California Supreme Court, sitting in San Francisco, had denied earlier in the day.

The writ claimed Brubaker was coerced into confessing he strangled Irene Potter Morey, a Los Angeles divorcee, and her 9-year-old son Quentin July 21, 1958. The writ also alleges Brubaker had previously suffered brain damage and was unstable mentally and had been denied the right of counsel.

The 40-year-old convict has been granted two previous stays of execution by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Millionaire, Wife Battling Again In Court

Blonde, brown-eyed Marlene Y. MacAnnan and her estranged husband, Tiburon millionaire Ronald R. MacAnnan Jr., appeared in Marin Superior Court yesterday in the latest struggle in their battle for divorce.

They presented counter-motions before Judge Thomas F. Keating.

He asked an order reducing the $500-a-month child support and alimony payments he is currently making to his wife.

She asked that he be made to pay $2,000 in attorneys fees, a $100 grocery bill, and $65 for the housemaid's salary.

The crew-cut, tanned MacAnnan, 34, currently living on the yacht Viveka in Sausalito, and his 24-year-old wife, a former airline stewardess living at their home at 2 MacAnnan Court, Tiburon, are suing each other for divorce after a 10-month marriage.

She charges cruelty; he charges adultery.

The wife was found guilty last month of filing a false complaint of car theft and kidnaping against her husband, an heir to the Stauffer Chemical Co. fortune.

After an hour's wrangling between the two attorneys yesterday, Judge Keating ordered MacAnnan to pay the housemaid's salary, and $40 due from the June 24 support check. He disallowed the plea for grocery money.

The matter of attorney fees and court costs was continued for one week.

BIG TOOT—The faces of Allen Bates and John Fenn, sons of the backers of a 33-whistle concert, reflect the big noise generated at the opening of the Schweiser Fest (Swiss Festival) at Tell City, Ind. (AP Wirephoto)

Army Team Will Inspect Crashed B-24

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three Army men left today to inspect the recently discovered wreckage of a World War II B-24 bomber that crashed in a remote high Sierra lake in 1943.

Their task is to confirm identity of the plane and determine if the bodies of the crew of six can be removed.

(A log book and briefcase found near the wreckage bore the name of Second Lt. William T. Cronin, navigator of a B-24 which vanished in the Sierra in December, 1943. He was a brother of Lt. Col. Harold J. Cronin of Hamilton Air Force Base.)

In charge of the 6th Army recovery team is Maj. John E. Thayer, assistant operations officer. He is assisted by Lt. Robert C. Hartmann and master diver Henry M. Wakevitch, deep sea divers with the 561st Engineer Company of Fort Baker.

FESTIVAL CONCERT

33 Steam Whistles Go Rooty Toot-Toot

TELL CITY, Ind. (AP) — They blew off steam last night—plenty of steam.

The annual Schweizer Fest—Swiss Festival — arranged a "grand steam whistle" concert of 33 genuine steam whistles collected from everywhere.

Steam whistles, once common, now are a rarity. Tell City, founded by Swiss a century ago and named in honor of William Tell, the apple-arrow man, began collecting old whistles when they first began to go out of use. Some of the whistles in the collection are nearly four feet tall and eight inches in diameter.

Some have movable pistons which permit a rise and fall in the tone—like a scream—and are called "wildcats" because of the scream.

Each of the 33 whistles, plus those on local factories, sounded separately last night. As a finale, 10 whistles accompanied the wail of the biggest "wildcat" which is known locally as the "heul hund."

Children's Work To Be Displayed

An exhibit of arts and craft work by children in the summer program of the Starwberry Recreation District will be held between 7:30 and 9 p.m., tomorrow in the Strawberry Point School.

The youngsters, doing such crafts as mosaics, leather work and needlework, have been under direction of Mrs. Sonia De Lew, craft director.

Soviet Issues Visas To U-2 Flier's Kin

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Embassy reported today it has issued visas for Francis Gary Powers' wife, father and mother to visit the Soviet Union in time for his trial on spy charges beginning Aug. 17.

Powers was pilot of the U-2 reconnaissance plane downed in the Soviet Union May 1.

An embassy spokesman also said visas would be, or have been, issued for three others who wish to accompany the family members—Carl A. Macafee, an attorney for the father, Oliver W. Powers; Dr. Lewis K. Ingram, physician for the ailing mother, Mrs. Ida Ford Powers, and Sol W. Cury, home town friend and adviser of the father.

The shortest distance across the Atlantic Ocean is 1,850 miles between Dakar, Africa and the bulge of Brazil.

Field Narrows For 2 Novato City Positions

The field for the posts of Novato city administrator and police chief is narrowing, city councilmen noted in a discussion session last night.

A qualifications board will interview the five candidates who have passed a written examination for police chief. Date for the board to meet has tentatively been set for Aug. 24.

Tonight or Thursday night, city councilmen will go into closed session to begin sifting qualifications of the more than 40 persons who have met basic requirements for the city administrator post.

The board which will orally test the police chief candidates will be composed of Sheriff Louis P. Mountanous, city administrative consultant Robert O. Bailey and two Bay Area police chiefs still to be named.

Twenty-five men, including one from Marin, were eligible to take the written examination for police chief. Twelve actually took the test. Five passed. The five who are eligible for the oral board test are all from California, none from Marin.

At the time of the Revolution the American Army had only one permanent chapel, that at Newburgh, N.Y.

City Hall Decision Put Off In Novato

Novato City councilmen in a budget discussion session last night warily put off decision on whether to budget for rental of the present city hall.

The building at 826 Grant Avenue has been used rent-free by the city since incorporation in January, courtesy of the Central Valley National Bank. But the new owner is Mrs. Rosa Silva, mother of Councilman M. E. (Babe) Silva.

Silva has scrupulously kept out of discussion on whether the council should rent the building, to avoid possible charges of conflict of interest. His only public comments during council discussions have been "if it'll save the city money (by renting the building) who's going to criticize?"

Councilmen last night instructed City Atty. Clark M. Palmer to ask a state ruling on the case through State Sen. John F. McCarthy. Palmer said he believed the council might be held "criminally liable" if someone were to make an issue of renting the building.

"I'm afraid of it," declared the attorney.

Also unknown is the status of the Novato Community Club, some of the members and former members of which want to give the property rights to the city.

Two copies of a letter from read at last night's council meeting said fire safety deficiencies in the club house had not been brought to standard since 1950.

An inspection made July 21 included notes on the following needs:

Separation of furnace area from electric panel in the same basement room, exit from north wing of building, fire escape from upstairs, inspection of heaters and furnace before further use, sheet rock addition under stage and to the rear of it, flame proofing of curtains, additional exits, lighted exits, removal or replacement of large glass doors between foyer and auditorium ("possibilities of injuries are high enough without placing glass panels in front of a crowd"), removal of unused duct work, and placement of proper amount and types of fire extinguishers in the building.

Fire Commissioners Approve Septic Tank

The Tiburon Fire Protection district commission voted last night to sign contracts for installation of a septic tank and gas lines at the Trestle Glen substation, now under construction.

A toaster was donated to the department by commissioner Fred Mantegani.

Reed School Board Names New Trustee

Mrs. Erwin Farkas of Bel Aire was named last night to succeed Mrs. Ahleen Tresnon on the Reed Union School District board.

Appointment of Mrs. Farkas was recommended by County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis and approved by the county board of education. Mrs. Tresnon's resignation was received by the county superintendent on July 26.

The new trustee resides at 341 Karen Way. She and her husband, who is employed by the San Francisco Examiner, have two children in Reed District schools and two pre-school children.

Mrs. Farkas is a graduate of San Francisco State College and has studied also at University of California and San Jose State College. She is a former school teacher.

She is active in the Bel Aire Property Owners Assn., American Assn. of University Women and Reed Parents Club.

BELVEDERE PROBLEM

Tidelands Petition Going To Planners

The sticky problem of what to do with an initiative petition sgned by 15 per cent of the electorate confronted the Belvedere City Council at last night's meeting.

The petition, which was submitted at the July council meeting, calls for a special election to rezone certain properties for recreational use. The land in question is being developed by Belvedere Properties Co. on tidelands and has long been the subject of controversy.

At the July meeting, on the motion of Councilman H. Nordmark Williams, the petition tabled on the ground the city council was not the proper governing body to consider the question.

During the month Williams, not wishing to ignore the wishes of a good percentage of the electorate, reconsidered. Last night he moved the question be passed to the planning commission for recommendation.

E. Russell Rice and David W. Allen, representing the developers of the tidelands, argued this would in effect pass the question to the commission with "the blessing" of the council. They felt the proponents of the petition should be the ones to initiate the action.

Williams again reconsidered and moved to advise the proponents to present their petition to the planning commission.

A variance was granted Belvedere lagoon property owners, permitting them to use lot 14 of subdivision 7 for small boat docking and lagoon maintenance.

After much discussion on the legality of the issue, the First Church of Christ Scientist was granted a permit to erect a direction sign at San Rafael and Golden Gate Avenues.

Passage of an ordinance calling for a bond election for sewage treatment facilities was postponed until a special meeting at 8 p.m. today in the city hall as only three councilmen were present last night. Councilmen John H. Flint and Ida Scott were absent.

'Burnt Thumb' Boom

EASTON, Pa. (UPI)—Sales of outdoor eating equipment—including paper goods, grills, barbecues, chef's apparel, fuel and other "burnt thumb" paraphernalia—will run well in excess of a record $100 million this year, according to the makers of the Dixie Cup. The average family eats under the sky about 12 times during the summer, they add.

Breweries Planning To Uncap Price Rise

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The wholesale price of beer is expected to go up from 15 to 30 cents a case around Aug. 15, a spokesman for the brewing industry said today. This will mean an increase of from one to four cents a bottle in stores.

Most western breweries are expected to increase prices, the first wholesale raise since 1956. Eastern beers probably will be higher, too.

It was uncertain today whether bar prices will be increased. Most neighborhood taverns charge 30 cents for a bottle of western beer. Some places went up to 35 cents a few months ago.

To buy a car in 1925, it cost a worker about 37 weekly paychecks, or $910. In 1956 it cost him only about 30 weekly paychecks, or about $2,400.

U.S. Raises Sugar Amounts In Try To Hold Prices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department, attempting to hold down rising sugar prices, has increased by 400,000 tons the amount of sugar that may be sold in the United States this year.

The action yesterday in boosting the U.S. sugar market to 10.4 million tons was the latest in a series of moves that started when President Eisenhower slapped at Fidel Castro's regime by chopping Cuba's share of American sugar imports.

In raising for the second time the amount of sugar that may be sold in the United States this year, the Agriculture Department noted that sugar refiners in the northeastern states raised wholesale refined sugar prices from 9.40 to 9.70 cents a pound July 22.

Mill Valley Board Approves Budget

The Mill Valley School District board approved a budget of $1,108,500 last night after a final budget hearing.

Trustees also hired Douglas McArdle as bus driver, custodian and gardener for the district and Mrs. A. Denk to teach sixth grade at Alto School Mrs. Denk returns after one year leave of absence, and had previously taught at Alto.

'OLD UNFAITHFUL' SPOUTS IN TERRA LINDA

Contractors digging a ditch for an apartment project in Terra Linda broke a water line at the end of Oleander Way about 4 p.m. yesterday, and this geyser of water, shooting up more than 20 feet, resulted. William R. Seeger, Marin Municipal Water District manager, reported the break cut water to four homes for about an hour.

Harlan Fined $1,000; Jail Term Suspended

Sausalito publisher John M. Harlan was fined $1,000, given a suspended six-month sentence and placed on probation for five years today in U.S. District Court in San Francisco for tax law violations.

Harlan, 50, pleaded guilty April 22 to two counts of failing to put employees, withholding tax payments in a bank deposit, as the Internal Revenue Service had ordered.

The publisher yesterday made a final $3,790 deposit for second quarter withholding taxes in 1960. On July 22, he deposited $26,000 to bring his account with the government up to date.

But Judge George B. Harris in sentencing Harlan said the publisher had shown indifference in making the deposits and warned him:

"If you fail me I will commit you to six months in a federal penitentiary without further argument."

Soviets Claim Spy Capture

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets today claimed to have captured an American spy they said was ordered to ferret out locations of Soviet intercontinental ballistic missiles and air defense installations.

The man was identified as V. M. Slavnov, but the announcement by the National Security Committee did not give his nationality. It said he was captured in June as he tried to cross the border into Iran.

There was no immediate comment from either State Department or Central Intelligence Agency sources

Food Poisoning May Have Killed Man On Sierra Trip

A San Francisco man found dead Saturday in the Sierra Nevada by his two companions from Mill Valley may have died from food poisoning after eating dehydrated food, coroner's deputies in Fresno said yesterday.

William J. Stewart, 32, a safety engineer for an insurance firm, was on a trip with Donald Marvin Sr. of 92 Laverne Avenue, Mill Valley, chief safety engineer for the insurance company, and Marvin's son Donald Jr., 19.

When he became ill in remote Colby Meadow, his companions hiked to a ranch to telephone for help. When they returned, they found Stewart dead in his sleeping bag.

His body was taken by helicopter to Fresno yesterday for an autopsy.

CHP Vows Fire Prevention Drive

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Joining in the battle to prevent forest fires, the California Highway Patrol has launched a new drive against motorists who toss lighted cigarettes, cigars or matches out of their automobiles.

CHP Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said today that his officers were instructed to cite anyone observed throwing any lighted substance on a road or highway outside a business or residential district.

Stolen Liquor Contains Poison

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The man who stole some liquor from the Ellison liquor store over the weekend got some booze with more kick than the average.

Henry Tucker, the store manager, told police the liquor was condemned 10 years ago by health authorities because it had been contaminated by rat poison.

BIKE TRIP

Reno, Boise and return to Seattle.

Although the family has seen several auto wrecks on the trip they have escaped any serious harm. Mrs. Lemmon said the worst trouble was that their clothes were wearing out.

They rolled into San Anselmo about 8:30 p.m. yesterday. Before they could find the home of a Red Cross volunteer, Mrs. Margaret Hyman at 357 San Francisco Boulevard, a nut fell from the front wheel of Bernie's bike.

Help came in the form of San Anselmo police, who located a replacement nut and led the family to the Hyman home.

This morning the family trouped down to the San Anselmo Laundromat. While their light traveling clothes were washed and dried, they picnicked nearby. Then they pedaled off toward San Francisco.

Mrs. Strawbridge Files For Divorce

The wife of former Mill Valley Mayor Gordon W. Strawbridge filed suit for divorce in Marin County Superior Court today, charging cruelty and mental suffering.

Mrs. Nancy Meyer Strawbridge is seeking $700 a month alimony and child support, plus $1,500 attorneys fees and $50 court costs. She asks division of property and custody of the couple's two children, Daphne, 15, and Roger, 13.

The Strawbridges were married 16 years ago. They separated last April 7.

Strawbridge operates a printing business in Sausalito.

Dance Studios Told To Get In Step

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government today ordered Arthur Murray Studios to stop using phony contests and high-pressure tactics to sell their courses of dance instruction.

The FTC said the firm has agreed to the order but "the agreement is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission" that the law has been violated.

STOCKS TODAY

COMBINED AP-& UPI

NEW YORK—The stock market suffered its first reversal in four sessions today. The upward momentum generated in the last two sessions of last week, and to a lesser extent yesterday, finally ran out of steam today. The loss wiped more than three billion dollars from market valuations.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,200,000 shares compared with 2,440,000 yesterday.

Key stocks were down fractions to a point or so, although many showed drops running to two and three points as they slipped to their lows for the day.

Ousted Pastor 'Skips' Marin City

Under the cover of night, Rev. J. W. Harris, his wife and three children moved out of the new Marin City low-rent housing last night owing $45 in back rent, Bert Klahn, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority, reported today.

Klahn said Harris is the first "skip" from the project since it opened in April.

Rev. Harris recently was ousted from his pulpit by the board of deacons of the church. He unsuccessfully went to court to retain his position.

Carnival Worker Gets Jail In Morals Case

Gilbert Gene Lockard, 24, a carnival worker from Kentucky was sentenced to three months in the county jail yesterday for contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old Mill Valley girl.

Working at a carnival in Corte Madera last August, Lockard had taken the girl on a ride to San Francisco. He admitted making advances toward her.

cut a screen to get into the Kentfield Cleaners on July 31. They stole several dresses, sweaters and drapes.

Last Sunday they hit the College Market again. They were caught the next morning.

The dresses and drapes were found in the 16-year-old girl's house, along with the passkey to the school.

Money and costume jewelry was found in one of the boy's homes.

Inspector Bradley said the three boys have previously been in trouble.

All five were taken to juvenile hall.

New Members Take Seats On Tenants Council

Daniel Hayden was elected temporary chairman of the Marin City Tenants Council last night, after seating of the five new council members.

Other temporary officers elected were Benjamin Miles, vice chairman; Mrs. Rose Sweeney, secretary, and James Quiett, treasurer. Hardy Westmore was the fifth man seated.

An election was held last Thursday in which the five incumbents were swept out of office.

Hayden said an organizational meeting will be held next Monday to lay out a program of the new council.

Man Breaks Leg In Fall From Dock

A San Jose man was treated at Marin General Hospital for a broken right leg he suffered when he fell from a dock at Pier 27 in Tiburon Saturday night.

Hospital attendants reported that Donald Albourn, 34, a medical technician in San Jose, slipped from the dock onto a cabin cruiser he was attempting to moor.

OBITUARIES

Grace Boyd, San Rafael, Dies At 81

Private family services for Mrs. Grace Verdenal Boyd, widow of Thomas P. Boyd Sr., former district attorney of Marin County, were held today at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Mrs. Boyd died Sunday at her home at 1579 Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael, after a short illness. She was 81.

Mrs. Boyd's husband was district attorney for 12 years during the early 1900's.

The couple married in San Francisco in 1903 and came to live in San Rafael, where Boyd, a prominent Republican, had been practicing law since 1890. They lived on E Street for seven years until they bought the home on Lincoln Avenue where they resided the rest of their lives. Boyd died in 1933.

Mrs. Boyd was a member of the San Rafael Improvement Club for many years.

She is survived by a son, Thomas P. Boyd, San Rafael attorney; three daughters, Mrs. Ruth Nibley and Mrs. Francis McDonald of San Francisco and Elizabeth Boyd of San Rafael; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Burial was at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery in San Rafael.

The family requests that tributes be memorial contributions to the Archbishop Hanna Center for Boys in Sonoma, or to a favorite charity.

Nellie B. Dyer, Mill Valley, Dies

Mrs. Nellie B. Dyer died yesterday at a local hospital after a one-month illness. She was 82.

She lived with her daughter, Wilma Dyer, co-owner of the Lawson Dyer Pharmacy in Mill Valley, at 297 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley. Until her recent illness, she was active in keeping up her garden in the redwoods.

A native of La Porte, Ind., Mrs. Dyer came to California at the age of 12. She lived at Sanger in the San Joaquin Valley, at Soledad, Salinas and Mill Valley seven years ago.

She is survived by three sons, Clyde E. Dyer of Santa Maria, George O. Dyer of Oakland and John A. Dyer of Seattle; two daughters, Wilma E. Dyer of Mill Valley and Mrs. Sherrill Halbert of Sacramento; a brother, B. O. Thomas of Fresno; eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the Mill Valley Community Church.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley. Inurnment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Margaret Watts, Marinwood, Dies

Mrs. Margaret Watts, 54, died of a heart attack at her home at 395 Quietwood Drive in Marinwood yesterday.

She was found unconscious by her husband, Donald L. Watts, when he arrived home from work at 5:15 p.m. He called United Ambulance, but she was dead when the ambulance arrived, reported County Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

Mrs. Watts was born in Indiana. She moved with her parents to Carson City, Nev., when she was a young girl. She and Watts were married in that city and moved to California in 1944.

Before coming to Marinwood three years ago, the couple lived in San Francisco, where Watts has been an engineer for General Electric Co. for 20 years.

She is survived also by a son, Donald L. Watts Jr. of San Jose; two sisters, Mrs. Roy Kelly of Carson City and Mrs. Fred Perry of Blythe, Riverside County, and four grandsons.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Brooks Maxwell Services Slated

Funeral services will be held Thursday for Brooks Maxwell, 54, a 10-year resident of Mill Valley who died in a San Francisco hospital last Wednesday after a long illness.

Maxwell was a veteran of World War II and a retired Navy warrant officer. He was a native of West Virginia.

His wife, Florence, survives at the family home at 144 Richardson Avenue, Mill Valley.

Other survivers include a brother, Burlin Maxwell, and three sisters, Bonnie Maxwell, Mrs. Ruby Hurst and Mrs. Zella Zwiger, all of West Virginia.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Inurnment will be at Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

George Lorfink Dies Of Illness

George J. Lorfink, 40, a resident of San Rafael for five years, died yesterday at his home at 1330 Fourth Street after long illness.

Lorfink lived with his mother, Mrs. Rose M Lorfink.

He was employed as a maintenance man at the San Rafael Military Academy. Before coming to Marin, Lorfink lived in the Hawaiian Islands where he was born. He was a veteran of World War II.

Lorfink was a member of San Rafael Aerie 256, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and of the Holy Names Society at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael and at Star of the Sea Church in Honolulu.

He is survived by his mother and five sisters, Mrs. Ralph Lane of Los Angeles, Mrs. Dorothy Locey of San Rafael, Mrs. Rose Kamai, Mrs. Katherine McCullem and Mrs. Wilhelmina Clark, all of Hawaii

A Requiem High Mass will be celebrated at St Raphael's Church at 9:30 a.m Thursday with the funeral cortege leaving the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael at 9 a.m The Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the mortuary.

Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery San Bruno

School Chief's Wife Dies

Funeral services for Mrs Lucille Stouffer, wife of Supt Paul R. Stouffer of Reed Union School District, will be held Thursday in Mill Valley.

Mrs. Stouffer, who was 46, died unexpectedly of leukemia Sunday in a San Francisco hospital. She entered the hospital only last Friday.

The Stouffers resided the past three years at 18 Paloma Drive in Corte Madera. Previously they lived in Menlo Park, where Stouffer was curriculum director of Menlo Park School District.

A native of Lucerne, Mo., Mrs. Stouffer had been a California resident 15 years. She was a member of Olivet Chapter No. 3, Order of Eastern Star, of Lander, Wyo., and of Kappa Delta sorority at University of Wyoming.

Surviving her are her husband; a son, Jerry, and two daughters, Carol and Nancy of Corte Madera; her mother, Mrs Effie Long of Redwood City, and a sister, Mrs. George Hohenstein of San Francisco.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Kentfield Schools Budget: $620,000

Kentfield School District trustees last night approved a $620,000 budget for 1960-61 which will mean a 14-cent increase in the district's basic tax rate.

This year's basic tax rate will be $1.75 per $100 assessed valuation compared to last year's $1.61. Supt. Harold R. DePue said he had not yet calculated what over-ride taxes will amount to.

In other business, the school board awarded contracts to Cagwin and Dorward of San Anselmo to install an $11,917 sprinkler system and turfing at Kent School and a $23,927 turfing job at Wolfe Grade School. The San Anselmo firm was the lowest of four bidders, De Pue said.

Anthony Bacich, director of instruction for the district, reported he had consulted with Dr. William Mason of the San Francisco State College economics department about setting up a program in economics for Kentfield district eighth graders.

Under consideration are twice-a-week lessons in economics, for which a foundation grant would be necessary, or a concentrated two-week course in the spring.

DePue reported an administrative workshop is scheduled for Aug. 22-26; an orientation program for new teachers, Aug. 29-30, and pre-school sessions for all teachers, Aug. 31-Sept. 2.

He also reported that Zoellner Construction Co. of Ross expects to complete the six-classroom addition to Wolfe Grade School within two weeks.

The trustees authorized sending home to parents a voluntary student accident insurance policy written by North American Life and Casualty Co. of Minneapolis, Minn.

Engineers Asked To Allow Building Of Floating Berths

An application to construct three floating berths and a marine elevator at the foot of Bay Street in San Rafael has been filed with the Army District Engineer in San Francisco by W. C. Garvie of 43 Nelson Avenue, Mill Valley.

The proposed works would be on the south side of San Rafael Canal, approximately one-half mile downstream from the Irwin Street Bridge and would be landward of a construction line recently established by the city of San Rafael.

Any objections concerning the public rights of navigation should be addressed in triplicate to Col. John A. Morrison, district engineer, 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, by Aug. 28.

Ross Trustees Pass Budget Of $233,543

Ross School District trustees last night adopted a $233,543 budget for 1960-61. No residents showed up for a public hearing on the budget.

Supt. Donald D. Leister said the total tax rate was estimated to be $1.93 per $100 of assessed valuation, including $1.78 for general purposes and 15 cents for override taxes for special purposes.

The total rate is 10 cents lower than last year, and might have been even lower but for an increase in override taxes this year, Leister said.

The board approved a $50 contribution for support of the Junior Museum of Marin.

Wanda Morgan of Berkeley was appointed to teach French in grades 4-7 on a half-time basis.

She formerly taught in Sacramento, Berkeley, France and Mexico. She has a B.A. degree from Oberlin College and has attended Sacramento State College and University of California.

The district also plans to hire a half-time Spanish instructor, Leister said.

Of licensed drivers in the United States, 18 per cent are under 25 years of age, 25 per cent are 50 or older.

IN WEST MARIN

Retarded Children's Class Established

The first special class for mentally retarded children in West Marin will be established next month at Tomales.

The Marin County Board of Education last night approved employment of Mrs. Mary Arenander to teach the class. She has been teaching a similar class in Petaluma.

The board also created the job of supervisor of transportation for county-operated schools, and hired Royal E. Druba of Novato, a retired Army Ordnance man, for the job.

The touchy question of what to name the school at the county juvenile hall was referred back to a committee composed of Supt. Virgil S. Hollis; Edwin L. Blackmore, Hollis's administrative assistant; board member Adele S. Alpers, Roy W. Ibach of the county probation committee and Walter S. Busher, chief probation officer.

An earlier proposal to name the school Loma Alta met objection from present owners of the former Loma Alta School property.

Resignations of two teachers and three employees of the county superintendent's office were accepted. The resigning teachers are T. W. Geraghty and Alyn Brennan, both of whom have been teaching at San Quentin Prison. Leaving the office staff are Mrs. Pat Herreshoff, intermediate accountant, and Mrs. Edmar Hicks and Mrs. Juanita Wages, secretaries.

The following certificates and diplomas were approved:

Temporary certificates—Janet B. Lakengard, S. Wright Carlson and Kenneth J. Preble Jr.

All members of the county board were present.

Jury Deadlocked In Bomb Hoax Case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After deliberating three hours, a jury last night deadlocked on a verdict in the airliner bomb hoax trial of Archibald R. Dewar of Las Vegas, Nev.

Federal Judge Albert R. Wollenberg discharged the jurors and Asst. U.S. Atty. William P. Clancy Jr. said he would ask for a new trial.

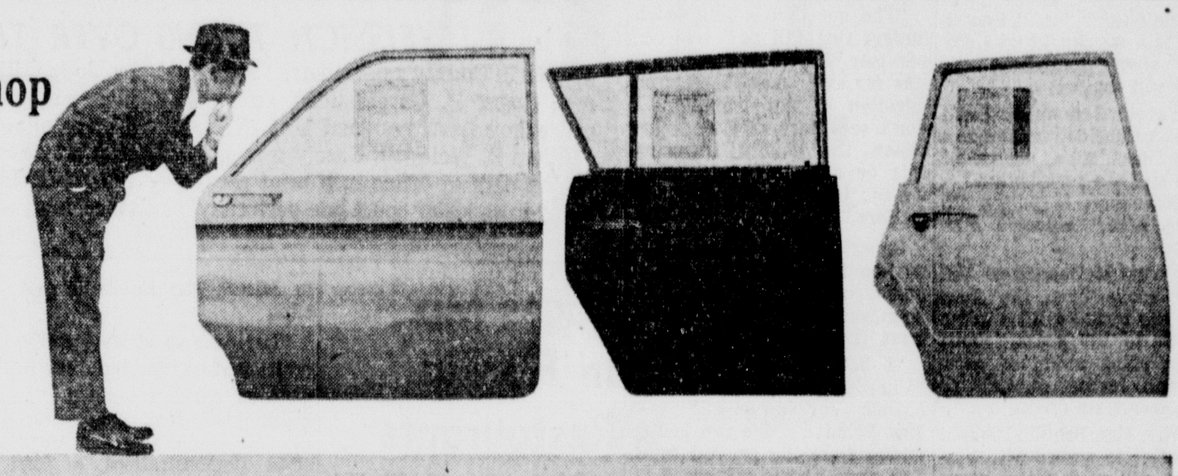

Dewar, 34-year-old operator of a janitorial service, was charged with making a false bomb report at San Francisco International Airport May 23. He said he was only joking.

FALCON IS AMERICA'S LOWEST-PRICED 6-PASSENGER CAR

IT'S A FACT! FALCON IS PRICED FROM $64 TO $154* LESS THAN OTHER COMPACT CARS

Right from the starting price, Falcon saves you more. It's the compact price of the year!

Falcon is not only priced lowest—"Falcon delivers the best fuel economy of the three new compact cars," says Motor Trend magazine. You go up to 30 country miles on one gallon of gas . . . and you do it on regular gas for regular savings. It figures out to as little as a penny a mile!

Savings, savings and more savings! Falcon goes 4,000 long miles between oil changes. Falcon's Diamond Lustre Finish never needs waxing. Falcon's aluminized muffler normally lasts twice as long as ordinary types. Falcon costs less to service, less to license and up to 15% less to insure most everywhere.

What makes this Falcon economy even sweeter, you don't have to sacrifice your comfort to enjoy it. Six big adults sit just fine in the Falcon's roomy interior. And you can pack away all their luggage in the Falcon's generous 23.7-cu. ft. trunk. (276% more luggage space than the best-selling import!)

With so much more of everything, is it any wonder Falcon is America's best-selling compact car? Over 300,000 already sold since its introduction! See for yourself why no other compact measures up to Falcon . . . the easiest car in the world to own!

Marindale School Support Approved

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today accepted as general county expense $54,153.64 for constructing two additional classrooms for handicapped children at the Marindale School, rather than seek district tax funds and state assistance as recommended by the county administrator.

Virgil S. Hollis, county school superintendent, appeared in favor of this course, supported by an imposing group of administrative officials apparently of like mind. He said state emergency funds are no longer available for such use, and district needs vary.

His original request of June 17 had said one new room is needed for the orthopedically handicapped and one for the deaf.

Cost estimates were from the architectural firm of Reid, Rockwell, Banwell and Tarics, who designed the school in Terra Linda.

A letter to the board from Alan Bruce, assistant county administrator, said "the need for this construction is clear and it should be undertaken without delay," but in checking the usual methods of financing his office had queried 36 other California counties, with 29 replying and 25 reporting that "the question of county aid has never been raised or, if raised, county aid had never been granted."

Bruce found that "the general practice is financed from school district funds with state aid."

"The question is just which budget this will be," said Supervisor William D. Fusselman. "As far as I know there is no question of not building. I don't see much difference between the county financing this or accepting responsibility for juvenile problems and welfare."

Supervisor Vera L. Schultz commented that in the past it has been found simpler to take from general fund than to extract from districts.

"I believe the necessity is so immediate that we shouldn't change our direction," said Mrs. Schultz. "We can justify taking from the general fund. The same people will pay."

Fusselman moved to place the request in the budget file and the board unanimously supported.

Supervisors Back Brown's Water Plan

The Marin County Board of Supervisors voted 4-1 today to support Gov. Edmund G. Brown's water program, against vigorous opposition by Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who objected to "telling the voters how to vote."

A letter from the Bay County Water Problems Committee enclosed a lengthy resolution which it wanted the board to pass. This the board finally did on motion of Supervisor Vera L. Schultz, but with Fusselman voting "no" and Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato dubiously qualifying his assent as just in favor of water in general.

"I don't think," said Fusselman, "that we should take any action about something the people will vote on.

"We avoided committing ourselves on fluoridation, and this is like fluoridation, not under our immediate jurisdiction."

"I think there is quite a difference here," objected Mrs. Schultz.

Mrs. Tom McDougall of Mill Valley spoke from the floor to say the issue "will tie us up from 50 to 100 years," when present plans would be obsolete, and further burden already poor state credit.

Finally, Mrs. Schultz brought the matter to a vote with Fusselman still saying the board shouldn't try to advise voters, and Gnoss saying, "My 'yes' is only because I'm for water generally."

WEISSICH TURNS OVER THE KEY

Marin County's new district attorney, Roger P. Garety (left), accepts office key from resigned Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich. Garety was given the oath of office in a brief ceremony in superior court late yesterday by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., the man who as district attorney hired Garety nine years ago. The new district attorney called the appointment the realization of an ambition held since high school.

Races Mix In Florida Restaurants

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Florida's first race-mixing at lunch counters occurred quietly at four downtown variety stores in Miami, the state's largest city.

There was no advance public notice and no reported disturbance as small groups of Negroes quietly took seats yesterday at counters where their sit-in demonstrations a few months ago caused furor and shutdowns.

Spokesmen for the city, Negro groups and store managements were reluctant to discuss the matter. Most of those who did asked that their names not be used.

A Negro who lunched at the F. W. Woolworth store lunch counter denied his group was acting by a concerted plan.

An executive in Grant's said 25 Negroes lunched there without causing disorder. The other stores were S. H. Kress and Walgreen's.

Trustees Pass Final Budget In Sausalito

A 1960-61 budget of $654,750 was approved last night by the Sausalito School District board.

Trustees also discussed the improvement of Buchanan Drive, near Bayside School, to serve Buena Vista Heights subdivision. A section of Buchanan is owned by the district. It was decided to meet at 8 p.m. Monday, in the district office to work out details with the Buena Vista Heights developers.

It was decided that a sewer line through the Marin City Elementary School parking lot could be put in with minor changes and no delay in altering the grade slightly. Last week trustees were told that the easement might have to be realigned at some extra cost.

Mrs. Hannolore Newby, director of the Marin City Child Care Center, reported that the center is "out of the red" and will be able to continue indefinitely.

Robert D. Thomson, principal, reported enrollment in summer school surpassed any in the previous three years the school has operated.

Drunken Drivers Fined $250 Each

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court fined two drunken drivers $250 each yesterday.

John Joseph Greener, 28, of the 2347th Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, drew the fine on his plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated July 21 on Highway 101 north of San Rafael. The judge suspended $100 of the fine but revoked Greener's driving privilege for 90 days and put him on six months probation.

Cecil Gray Piper, 59, Sebastopol grocer, was found guilty in a trial without jury. He also was put on six months probation, and $50 of his fine was suspended. He was arrested yesterday on Highway 101 near Marinwood.

BUDGET THRESHING

Novato Council Mulls City Attorney Fees

Novato city councilmen continued itemized discussion of the city's first budget last night in the third of a series of informal sessions.

The four-hour meeting was highlighted by long and amicable discussion on whether to raise the fees paid City Atty. Clark M. Palmer.

Other budget classifications tentatively gained in spending power, such as a possible $500 increase for outside evaluation of county freeway planning figures, and possible addition of $90 to the police budget for influenza shots.

Attorney Palmer had asked an increase from $5,300 to $6,500 yearly for handling city business. The figure includes $500 to be used only as payment for special litigation.

"I think we ought to advertise for a city attorney, Clark, I really do," Councilman M. E. (Babe) Silva said.

Answered Palmer: "I think you'll have a hard time finding anyone who has the city as much at heart as I do. You can take that for what it's worth."

Palmer said that about 50 hours a month is spent by him on regular city business, in addition to ordinance committee work which has run 16 hours a month for the past four months. The time figures do not include a secretary's time. Palmer told the council.

Councilmen put over a decision on whether to grant the raise until another budget session.

Total budget figures remain in the $234,179 area previously estimated, in addition to a special service district and gas tax rebates from the state. Tentative tax rate for the city is 25 cents.

Mill Valley Council Approves $2,000 Golf Shop Plans

The Mill Valley City Council approved allocation of $2,000 to the parks and recreation commission last night for materials to remodel and expand the golf pro shop.

It also agreed that $2,000, already in the 1960-61 budget draft, be set up for a new roof for the golf clubhouse and new skylights. The council asked commission members for estimates on cost of painting the clubhouse.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants said Carl Book of Mill Valley has submitted plans for remodeling the golf pro shop, which will go to the planning commission. Labor for the work on the pro shop is to be supplied by the Mill Valley Men's Golf Club.

The council agreed to allow up to $1,200 to permit the City Treasurer William G. Rutherford to hire a deputy as part-time help. Last year's sum allotted was $900.

A discussion was held with the chairman of the library board, Mrs. Dorothy Peavey, regarding the fee to charge library participants living outside the city limits.

Mrs. Peavey said the board was considering $5 per family per year. Some council members said that, since persons living in Mill Valley pay about $12 per family per year, in taxes for the library, the fee should be higher. The council asked Mrs. Peavey to discuss it further with the library board and come before the council at its Aug. 17 meeting.

Mayor Robert D. Huber, absent from the meeting, is on vacation.

Councilmen Adapting Civil Defense Plan

A six-point plan for adapting the Marin County civil defense plan to Corte Madera was proposed by Town Councilman Roger F. Morse last night.

It was based on the fact that the town is considered as "integrated city" and will be directed by Marin County civil defense in an emergency.

According to Morse the town should:

1. Ask the county to establish a training program which would instruct and orient its key personnel.

2. Have these men—the fire and police chiefs and town manager—set up town classes and instruct their crews what to do in case of a nuclear attack.

3. Appoint a citizen civil defense committee to study the plan and make it work for Corte Madera.

4. Have Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow designated an emergency headquarters with improved communications.

5. Request a summary set of instructions to hand out to the public. 6. Recommend an assistant for H. Brandow, who is civil defense chief.

Decision on Morse's plan was postponed until the Aug. 15 council meeting.

Paradise Drive Drainage Plan Due Hearing

The Corte Madera Town Council last night set for public hearing the $120,000 Paradise Drive drainage project.

The council set a hearing for 8 p.m. Sept. 6, issued the call for bids to be opened at 3 p.m. the same date, and approved the plans and specifications.

Major part of the project's cost will be paid by the San Clemente Land Co., developer of Mariners Cove. The remainder will be assessed to property owners in the cove area.

DRAINAGE SYSTEM

More than a mile of storm drains, catch basins and inlets will drain the southern part of Mariners Cove, the entire Mariners Highlands, the south part of Paradise Drive and a portion of the Deffebach properties.

Engineers hope to complete the 90-day construction project by Dec. 1.

The council also accepted plans and specifications for a new $4,200 town maintenance building and issued a call for bids to be opened Aug. 15.

BEHIND ANNEX

The portable sheet - steel structure, which will serve as an equipment storage building, will be erected behind the town hall annex. Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow said this will not be its permanent site.

Contract for reconstruction of Oakdale Avenue between Chapman Drive and Eastman Avenue was awarded to Lee-Mac Paving Co. of Corte Madera at $21,619. This was the lowest of four bids. The award was voted subject to approval by the Corte Madera Sanitary District board tonight. The work could start by Aug. 18.

New Firm Unfurls Sail At Sam's Anchor Cafe

New management has cast anchor at Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon.

The Shark Point Corp. took over from yesterday, with Kenneth Hoyt, who opened the Gourmet Restaurant in Disneyland at Anaheim five years ago, as new manager.

Sam Vella of Tiburon, founder and for years operator of the picturesque waterfront cafe, has been in failing health for some months and finally felt he must relinquish active management, according to Hoyt.

"He's been talking about a trip to Hawaii but I'll bet he doesn't go," said Hoyt.

"We shall keep the atmophere as he created it, although we are cleaning things up a bit," the new manager said.

Corte Madera Council Joins Bay Group

A decision to join the Assn. of Bay Area Governments was approved by a four-to-one vote of the Corte Madera Town Council last night.

The council also set a public hearing on the 1960-61 budget for 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15.

Resignation of Boyd N. Moore from the planning commission was accepted.

Membership in the Bay Area association was proposed by Councilman Roger F. Morse. Councilman William R. Hansen voted against the motion.

The association, which is being formed among the nine counties and 82 cities of the Bay Area, will work on such metropolitan problems as development of harbor facilities, rapid transit, and collection of traffic fines.

Twenty-eight cities, including Sausalito and San Rafael, have already joined the organization, Morse reported.

The cities will be assessed by population but will each have one vote in the association. It will have a salaried staff. Corte Madera's assessment will be about $60, said Morse.

Councilman Hansen, in voting "no," said: "We have so many agencies now. Where do you stop?"

Marin City Agencies To Meet Thursday

The Marin County Housing Authority will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Marin City Community Lounge. The Marin County Redevelopment Agency will meet at 2:20 p.m. in the same location.

The regular meetings were not held yesterday because of lack of a quorum.

Winners Told In Contest For Horsemen

Forest Knolls residents took both first place trophies in the trail contest sponsored Sunday by the San Geronimo Valley Horsemen's Assn.

Jessie B. Joyce won the first place trophy for scoring the most points in the competition, and Dorene Wilson, 15, won the contest for junior members over the obstacle course at the association's playfield in Woodacre.

Judges for the contest were five members of the Tamalpais Trail Riders Assn.: Jo Ann Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John Strong, Rachel Brown and William McLellan.

Other winners were Fred Vaughn of San Geronimo, second place; Alma Burke of San Geronimo, third, and Ora Lee Travis of Woodacre, fourth. In the junior division winners were Diane Ross of Woodacre, second; Richard Vaughn of San Geronimo, third, and Clayton Vaughn, 12, of San Geronimo, fourth.

School Starting Pay-Later Plan

PALO ALTO (UPI) — The Stanford University School of Business will begin a new "study now, pay later" program in fall under which students may borrow up to $4,000 during the two-year business school course.

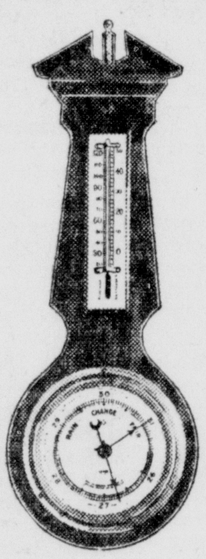

Dean Ernest C. Arbuckle said yesterday that it was hoped the program would keep the school from losing good students because of their limited finances.

The program provides that students will not begin paying interest and on the principal until six months after graduation.

Will McCovey Demoralize Giants? They've Done Swell Without Him

HANLEY

PHILADELPHIA — Recall of Willie McCovey by the Giants from their Tacoma farm team, where he spent two weeks in coventry, may be a smart move by Horace Stoneham and then again it may prove to be as demoralizing to the team as his sudden dismissal of Bill Rigney June 18.

The president and owner of the ball club naturally believed he was working in his own best interest and that of the team when Rigney was summarily ousted at a time when only 58 games of the 154-game season had been played and the Giants were in second place, just four games out of first. Never before in major league history was a manager fired under such circumstances.

Stoneham frankly admitted he made Rigney the goat for the fumbling and bumbling ways of the Giants in the hope the team would perk up under a new manager, display some spirit, begin to hustle. What happened, of course, is baseball history. The team skidded from second to fifth place and as recently as July 16 was a full nine games off the pace of the Pirates.

Since July 16, just a few days after McCovey was sent to Tacoma in a disciplinary move that carried an implied warning to others, the Giants—heartened by rookie Juan Marichal's three superb pitching performances—have been playing good ball, winning their last three series in Candlestick Park from the Pirates, Braves and Reds.

MORE IMPORTANTLY, during those series Jim Marshall showed the kind of pepper play around first base that not only won the admiration of his teammates but also the crowd. Marshall's hustle was in sharp contrast with the way McCovey nonchalantly covered first and gave "how-de-do" treatment to fouls near the box seats.

Marshall literally tried to climb the six-foot concrete wall into the boxes last Friday night during the Cincinnati series opener for a foul ball. The crowd, remembering that in the first inning Marshall also tried to beat out an infield grounder with an all-out slide into first base, mightily applauded him.

SOMEHOW WE just cannot envision McCovey challenging the concrete wall or racing to first. He stubbed his toe on the wall early in the season and thereafter gave it a deferential distance of three to five feet, coupled with half-heartedly, reaching glove stabs at foul balls.

Maybe during the two weeks he has been in Tacoma McCovey had time to think about these and other things, such as his extremely disappointing performances at bat. When Tom Sheehan, Rigney's successor, dispatched McCovey to Tacoma Sheehan maintained it was not a disciplinary move. But everyone around the ball team knew better.

STONEHAM SAID at the time that McCovey "would have to play his way back to the big team." He did average an RBI a game, but there has been nothing sensational about his overall PCL performance in the past fortnight.

Nevertheless, McCovey certainly is entitled to a second chance. He rejoined the Giants yesterday morning just before their chartered plane took off for Philadelphia, first stop in a three week swing that will touch all N.L. bases.

Giants Launch Grueling Week With Pair Against Philadelphia's Phillies Tonight

Marichal, Sanford To Do The Hurling

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The San Francisco Giants open what could be their toughest week of the campaign—eight games in six days—with a twi-night double-header against the Philadelphia Phils tonight.

The Giants, back in the National League pennant race once more, are starting a 23-game road trip and they're starting it with momentum.

The San Franciscans have won five straight and 10 of their last 13 games.

Manager Tom Sheehan nominated Jack Sanford (9-8) and Juan Marichal (3-0), both right-handers, to face the Phils' Dallas Green (2-4) and John Buzhardt (4-8).

The Giants are scheduled for 16 consecutive playing dates without a day off and they'll travel to every city in the league before they return home to San Francisco Aug. 23.

The reason this week is tough is that after the doubleheader tonight, the Giants play night games here tomorrow and Thursday, then move into Pittsburgh for four games in three days with the league-leading Pirates.

The Giants were fifth today, 5½ games behind Pittsburgh, but by Sunday night the top five clubs in the league could be completely reshuffled in the standings.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, hottest club in the circuit despite its third-place post, open a four-game series with league-leading Pittsburgh tonight which conceivably could knock the Pirates out of first place.

Second-place Milwaukee, two games behind the Pirates, meet the fourth-place Cardinals in the first of an important three-game series. The Redbirds, winners of five straight following three losses to Pittsburgh, are only 4½ games off the pace and only a half game behind the Dodgers.

While the first four clubs are concentrating on each other, the fifth-place Giants will have a golden opportunity to reduce the 5½-game gap that separates them from the leader.

Willie McCovey, the Giants' Rookie of the Year in 1959, rejoined the club yesterday. He had been sent to Tacoma after proving a disappointment with San Francisco this season.

Up for the first time is Tacoma's ace reliever, Sherman (Roadblock) Jones, who compiled a 10-0 record and 12 saves in the Pacific Coast League. To make room for Roadblock, the Giants sent veteran Bud Byerly to Tacoma.

When the season opened McCovey appeared set at first base and Jim Marshall was listed as a pinch hitter. But today Marshall is the Ginats' regular first sacker and McCovey is slated for pinch hitting duties.

Marshall is the man being credited today with the resurgence of the Giants.

The 29-year-old infielder, who has drifted about the baseball wars for a decade without notable success, has become the "take charge" guy for a club that only two weeks ago was marked off as dead in the National League pennant chase.

"That Marshall is making the big difference in this club," says veteran pitcher Sad Sam Jones. "That fellow gives it all he's got. You got to admire him."

Orioles Keep On Winning Close Ones

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Paul Richards' surprising Orioles appear to have hit upon a winning formula which may pay off in the first pennant in Baltimore's brief American League history.

Actually, it's a double-aimed plan—win the close ones and knock off the top team.

The third-place Birds followed the blueprints to the letter last night, defeating the front running Chicago White Sox 2-1.

NINTH OVER SOX

It was their 26th victory in 38 one-run decisions this year. It also was their ninth triumph over the White Sox in 16 meetings. No club has a better record in close games and no club has made a better showing against Chicago this year.

New York's runner-up Yankees trimmed Chicago's margin to a half game with a 3-2 triumph over the Detroit Tigers. Cleveland's fourth place Indians climed to within six games of the top with a 3-0 victory over Washington. Kansas City outlasted Boston 10-8 in 10 innings.

There was no action in the National League.

TWO STAND OUT

Ron Hansen, a rookie, and Gene Woodling, a veteran, collaborated to lead the Orioles to their narrow victory. Hansen opened the seventh with a double and scored the tie-breaking run on Woodling's pinch single.

Milt Pappas, who pitched hitless ball through the last five innings, was credited with his ninth victory. He has lost eight.

Although his White Sox lost, manager Al Lopez was heartened by the pitching of Herb Score, who went all the way, giving up only seven hits. Better yet, he fanned nine and did not walk a batter.

CASEY MASTERMINDS

Wise old Casey Stengel masterminded another victory for the Yankees. In the seventh inning against Detroit he called upon southpaw Luis Arroyo to protect a 3-2 lead for Ralph Terry. In the eighth he replaced Hector Lopez in left field with Tony Kubek.

Arroyo hurled three scoreless innings to preserve Terry's fifth triumph. In the ninth, Kubek made a spectacular catch of Al Kaline's bid for a home run with a running, over-the-shoulder stab of the 415-drive in front of the bleachers.

END OF A DREAM—Athol Graham, 36, Salt Lake City, posed proudly at top beside his 3,000 horsepower "City of Salt Lake" speed car at Bonneville Salt Flats where he hoped to set a new automobile speed record. His dream, however, ended in tragedy, with the car shattered as shown in the lower photo — and with driver Graham dead. (AP Wirephotos)

DEATH ENDS DREAM OF SPEEDSTER

Utah Man Dies In Effort To Set New Record

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (UPI)—Utah speed racer Athol Graham will never realize his ambition to become the first American to drive 400 miles an hour.

Graham, 36-year-old Salt Lake City garageman, was killed yesterday when his home-made car skidded and flipped over on the Bonneville Salt Flats in western Utah.

Graham was the first of four racers scheduled to attempt a new world land speed record at Bonneville this summer. Others to follow are Dr. Nathan Ostich of Los Angeles, Donald Campbell of London, and Mickey Thompson of Los Angeles.

COBB HOLDS MARK

The Utah driver, operator of a garage in Salt Lake City, had hoped to surpass the world record of 394.19 miles per hour established by England's John Cobb in 1947.

The twisted wreckage of Graham's $2,500 home-made racer was returned from the Salt Flats to Salt Lake City today. Although no official cause of the mishap was listed, observers blamed the accident on too much power and acceleration for the weight of the 4,200 pound racer.

Graham's bright red painted "City of Salt Lake" went into a sideways skid, crashed onto its right side and looped across the saline bed of prehistoric Lake Bonneville.

WHEELS SPIN LOOSE

He was two-thirds of the way between the starting pit and the measured mile posts, traveling in excess of 300 miles an hour, when the rear driving wheels spun loose from the salt under acceleration from the car's 3,000 horsepower airplane engine.

Graham's pretty wife, Zeldine, was at the finish line, waiting for her husband to complete his first run. After the crash, she flew with him to a Salt Lake hospital, where normally she is employed as a registered nurse. They have four small children—three girls and a boy.

Graham had dreamed since boyhood of becoming the first American to reach the magic 400 miles an hour.

The death was the first since Sept. 3, 1955, at the world famous course.

Another Marin Entry Bites Dust In Semi-Pro Ballfest

By KARL BARRON

The last local hope in the California Semi-pro Baseball Tournament went down to defeat last night after starting with a three run first inning that had the fans on their feet.

But the Marin Buffalows didn't have the stuff to hold up against the onslaught of the Manteca Merchants, and the contest ended after six innings with a score of 12 to 3. It was called then on the nine-run deficit rule.

The Buffs got to Manteca's tricky left-hander Gene Frechette with one down in the first as Sandy Slack, Ron Blum, and Dick Spackman collected successive singles. Gary Conwell and Norm Kreuter each doubled, making it three runs.

But after that opening, Frechetti allowed only three scattered hits, and the San Joaquin Valley lads garnered two in the first, two in the third, two in the fourth, four in the fifth and one in the sixth to put the game on ice. Starter Ron Cole allowed the visitors 10 hits.

For the Buffalows, Ron Blum led with two hits, his second another double in the third. But the snappy shortstop tried to stretch it to three, and left fielder Jim Leatherwood threw a strike to third to get Blum.

Dick Spackman took over on the mound in the top of the sixth, and walked two men. Frechetti dumped one, and Pat Dundas, who had come in at first base, threw in the dirt to the plate, allowing Bob Silva to score and chalk up the nine run lead needed to call the game.

Buff hopes of keeping it alive were raised in the bottom of the sixth, when catcher Bill Buffalow singled with two out, but Frechetti made Jerry Ard pop to first.

In their second appearance, the Buffalows will meet the Riverside Dons Sunday at 1 p.m. This will pit two young teams, composed mainly of high school age players.

Manteca returns Saturday at 8:15 p.m. against Sabella's of San Francisco.

In the second game, Ernie Evans pitched a three hitter for Sabella's of San Francisco to pace them to a 4 to 3 victory over the Riverside Dons. The Dons' Tom Major allowed only five bingles, in a contest which kept the small crowd on edge to the last out at midnight.

Riverside's leadoff hitter, second sacker Gary Adams, led off by being hit with a pitched ball, and scoring what one observer called the "freakiest" run of the tournament. Advanced to third on successive passed balls, Adams came in on a wild pitch.

Evans then settled down and contained the Dons until the eighth. Sabella's scored in the third on a single by third baseman John McCarthy, who moved down on first sacker Don Lowspinsky's infield blooper.

With the bases loaded, McCarthy attempted to come home on a passed ball, but catcher Tony Scott tagged him at the plate, then threw past third, and Lowpinsky came in to score.

In the fifth, Fred Glosser got on with an overthrow and moved to second on it. John McCarthy doubled for the tally to send Sabella's ahead 2 to 1.

The Dons started the eighth with a walk for Gary Adams, but Billy Marseilles forced him at second. Shortstop Gene Adams brought the crowd to its feet with a slashing double which moved his twin brother to third.

Dick Farley, center fielder, came up with a timely single to score the runners, and it was 3 to 2, Riverside. But that was the end of the scoring column for the Dons.

In the ninth Ernie Evans led off with a single, which Joe Delfino duplicated.

A steal and a passed ball moved Evans to third and Delfino to second. Evans, starting with the windup, stole home. And while Major was in the process of striking out Bill Glosser, a wild pitch allowed Delfino to score. That was it.

Tonight the first round of the double elimination tourney concludes with the Burlingame Red Sox against Pontiac Braves at 6 p.m. The 8:45 contest pits Acme Carpet of Oakland against the Brisbane Merchants.

Tomorrow night will begin the second round as the Tiburon Pelicans are pitted against the Los Angeles Shriners. There is some question as to whether the Shriners will make the trip, however. If they don't, Tiburon will move on with a forfeit. The night-cap should be a top-notcher, as year year's champs, the San Jose Nesbit Masonry club meets Travis Air Force Base Hawks.

SENIOR SERIES

San Anselmo Stars Draw First Blood

San Anselmo's All-Star Senior Leaguers drew first blood against San Rafael last night 11-9 in the opening game of a best two-of-three series to get the Hub City nine off on the right foot in the Second Annual San Anselmo Youth Baseball Tournament.

In the first game of the Little League's Major Division, the San Rafael American All-Stars bested Fairfax - Sleepy Hollow 3-1.

Tonight at 6 p.m. San Anselmo's Major Division All-Stars clash with Hamilton Air Force Base. In the Minor bracket, Gallinas Valley engages San Rafael.

In yesterday's All-Star Senior League tilt, held to five and one-half innings due to a time limit, the Hub-bubs scored their 11 runs on three hits and 14 walks. Most effective visiting hurler was Tom Williams, who relieved losing pitcher Jack Sovereign too late.

San Anselmo's Stan Chapman, who came on in the second frame in relief, took the win, allowing only two hits.

Of the winners' three safeties, the biggest was a three-run double by Tinker Ward in an eight-run second inning. Ward also started the prettiest play of the evening, a pickoff to shortstop Wayne Luttringer to nail Jerry Smith at second and end a threatening San Rafael rally in the fifth.

The two 15-16-17 - year - old clubs meet again at 4 p.m. on Saturday.

In the San Rafael-Fairfax contest in the Majors all the winner's runs came in the first inning off one hit, a single by pitcher Ken Erdman, and three Fairfax errors. Bill Ingram singled to drive in pitcher Charlie Locati with Fairfax' lone tally in the third. Each club got three hits. The loss eliminated Fairfax.

Mays Trails Larker In Bat Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays of San Francisco is having trouble getting that second National League batting championship to add to the one he won in 1954.

In 1958, Mays and Richie Ashburn came down to the wire with Ashburn taking the title, .350 to .347.

This season, Norm Larker of Los Angeles is Mays' strongest competitor. The Dodgers' first baseman picked up one point in last week's games and showed a .345 average through Sunday's games. He had seven hits in 20 tries.

Mays, who won the crown in 1954 with a .345 mark, remained second at .343. He also had 7-for-20. Ashburn held the No. 3 spot, although he lifted his average four points to .325. Richie had 10 hits in 28 times at bat.

In the American League, veteran Roy Sievers of the Chicago White Sox tied Bill Skowron of the New York Yankees for the lead at .321. Sievers climbed 16 points on a 12-for-26 performance while Skowron lost 13 points with four hits in 25 attempts.

Passing Polished

ORANGE (AP)—The Los Angeles Chargers are polishing up their passing game for Saturday night's debut against the New York Titans in Los Angeles.

Two Star Tilts Set For 1961; One Thereafter

NEW YORK (AP) — Major league club owners have agreed to the players' overwhelming desire for two All-Star games in 1961 but in 1962 and thereafter the leagues will revert to the traditional one game.

Commissioner Ford Frick yesterday confirmed The Associated Press exclusive of last week that the two All-Star games policy will be retained for next year, the games to be played a month apart.

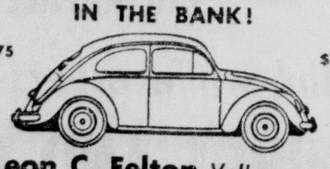

The first game will be played in Candlestick Park, home of the San Francisco Giants. The second game will be played in an Eastern City, probably Boston.

No dates were specified but the first game probably will be played Tuesday, July 11 and the second game Tuesday, Aug. 8.

Fair To Good Prospects For Deer Hunters As '60 Season Approaches

STEVENS

Howdy, folks! How do prospects look for personally killed venison? Well, they are rated fair to good if you watch your fires and have a convincing line of lingo to gain access over private property for the 1960 deer season which begins Saturday in most counties of the coastal area and in some inland counties.

It happens that much of the deer range in the early season is located on private property and permission to trespass must be granted by the owners. Thus it behooves each and every nimrod to respect his rights and so conduct himself that the land owners will be glad to grant permission now and in the future. Only by playing ball with the landowners can we improve the rather doubtful landowner-hunter relations. The guy or gal who leaves gates open, scares stock and scatters shots close to houses or stock, or gets firewood for his campfire by using the ranchers' fences, isn't just doing so as an individual, but as a member of the entire hunting fraternity.

The fire hazard is especially high in most areas. Carelessness with matches, cigarettes and campfires can do a great deal of harm. Watch it!

Following is the picture as the game wardens and game managers paint it: Generally—Fire hazard high; roads fair to good; deer scattered over wide area, in good condition, but some may have little or no body fat; buck kill should be about the same as last year. (This applies to Humboldt, Mendocino and Lake Counties in particular.)

COUNTY BY COUNTY REPORT

HUMBOLDT—On portion open Aug. 6, south of Table Bluff and west of Highway 101; no areas open except by permission from landowner; no camping allowed, but governed by fire hazard on opening weekend. Southern Humboldt: All areas privately owned, permission to hunt necessary except for Kings Peak hunting area, a 21,000-acre portion of public land 30 miles west of Garberville and due north of Shelter Cove. The area from Briceville to Ettersburg-Wilder Ridge and Mattole River should have plenty of deer; also the brush-heavy area from Chamise Ridge to Queens Peak and Kings Peak should be well populated with deer. Salmon Creek headwaters and Elk Ridge usually produce, too.

MENDOCINO — Public hunting on State and National Forest. Jackson State Forest has about 50,000 acres, but you are cautioned about the closed areas around Parlin Fork and Chamberlain Creek Conservation Camps and the Mendocino Woodlands Recreation area. More deer than last year. Prospects bright, but hunting is difficult. Permission needed on private lands.

LAKE COUNTY — Access for hunting will be open within the Mendocino National Forest, Cow Mountain, Boggs Mountain State Forest and public domain land east of the forest, the same as last year. Hunters are cautioned to observe the posted boundary of State Game Refuge 2-A while driving the Hull Mountain hunting areas. A major logging road has been constructed through the refuge and hunters should learn the refuge location. Deer are found at all elevations, but a seasonal shift can be expected to lower elevations later in the season when acorns become available. Should be more younger deer in the take this year. Prospects appear better than last year.

NORTH CENTRAL VALLEY — Colusa, Yolo, Solano, Glenn, Napa counties. Generally — Fire hazard very high; most lands posted; some open by permission from landowner; deer scattered; in good condition.

COLUSA AND GLENN — Roads fair. Most of private lands posted and patrolled, but National Forest and Walker Ridge open to public. Most buck will be in velvet; some good ones seen. Prospects about the same as last year.

YOLO — Extreme fire hazard. Only one road open into public lands and much of same lies behind private lands and is inaccessible. Many hunting clubs in area. Fiske Creek and Rumsey Mountain area is open to public, but not many deer observed to date. Bucks should have hard horns and success should be on a par with last year.

SOLANO—Fire hazard moderate. Access limited. Club owners and ranchers to not object to hunting on top of Blue Ridge. Twin Sisters resort property open to hunting. Deer scattered; fair numbers in orchards. Was productive last year.

NAPA—Only access will be on public domain lands in northeast portion of county. Deer are scattered, but better success than last year is expected.

WE WILL present details of South Central Valley, Bay Area Counties and South-of-Bay Coastal Counties in our next article. Until then, go fishing and dream of that fine fat buck waiting for you.

Marin Pirates Beat Benicia In Dual Meet

Short a coach and hard hit by illness and vacations, Marin Pirates swim team dropped a close one, 277 to 258, to the Neptunes Swim Club in Santa Rosa last Thursday but bounced back to defeat Benicia Saturday at the Drake High School pool in San Anselmo. The Saturday score was 277 to 247.

Although the Pirates won most of the events they entered at the Santa Rosa meet, they wound up on the short end of the tally because of a rule limiting individual entries to three events. A number of their regulars were ill or on vacations.

Coach Ben Kaufman is in Detroit, Mich., with Ken Frost, the Pirates' star breast stroker, at the Olympic trials.

Free of the limiting rule Saturday in the Benicia meet, Marin swimmers, although still short handed, doubled up on events and came out with the top score.

Bob Girvin turned in five first place performances in the Benicia meet at Drake: 25 free, 14.5; 25 back, 17.3; 25 breast, 20.2; 25 butterfly, 18.0; and 100 individual medley, 1.22.0. Lynne Keeler was first in four events: 50 free, 30.6; 50 breast, 40.5; 50 butterfly, 36.4; and 100 individual medley, 1:19.3. Denny Arms won three: 50 free, 30.6; 50 butterfly, 41.5; and 100 individual medley, 1:24.5.

Bill Anderson took two firsts at the Benicia meet, 50 free, 26.6 and 50 butterfly, 31.5.

Other Pirates who won over Benicia, with their times: Roberta Shistar, 25 back, 21.0; Nancy Girvin, 50 back, 38.3; Jeff McCreary, 100 back, 1:08.1; Candy Beeler, 50 breast 41.6; John Osborn, 50 breast, 33.8; Tony Crossler, 15-17 boys 100 butterfly, 1:05.8.

The Pirates also won 11 of 14 relay events.

Sausalito Junior Tennis Tourney To Start Aug. 13

Entries are now being accepted for Sausalito's third annual City Junior Tennis Championships which open Aug. 13 at the Richardson Bay School courts. The tournament will continue Aug. 20 and 27.

Tournament Director John Minton said there will be four divisions of play, two each for boys and girls. Divisions are: boys under 18, girls under 18, boys under 15, and girls under 15.

To qualify, entrants must reside in Sausalito, but need not necessarily be registered in the city's current summer tennis program. To be eligible for a particular age bracket, a youngster must not reach his respective birthday before the end of the tournament—that is, before Aug. 27.

Enries may be telephoned to Minton or mailed to him at 55 Cazneau Avenue in Sausalito. Deadline for entries is Saturday of this week.

Trophies donated by the Sausalito Rotary Club will be presented to winners in each division. Runners-up also receive appropriate awards.

Gaels May Shift Home Games To Richmond

MORAGA (AP)—St. Mary's basketball team will play its big home games at Richmond Auditorium or Oakland Auditorium this year.

Coach Jim Weaver said yesterday that the Moraga Gym, which seats 1,100, just isn't large enough.

San Jose Snares Top Colt Honors

San Jose wound up as champion of the Northern California Colt Baseball Tournament played in Redding last weekend.

San Jose downed Santa Cruz, 3-2 in the final game Sunday night and will represent northern California in the Regional Championships at Pocatello, Ida., later this week.

A North Bay team composed mostly of Marin County boys placed fifth in the Northern California tournament with one victory and two defeats.

Colt League is for boys 15-16 years of age.

Marinites Sweep 5,000-Meter Run At Kezar Stadium

Marin Athletic Club swept first, second and third places and went on to win the team championship Friday in the Olympic Development Races held in Kazar Stadium, San Francisco.

The 5,000-meter (three miles, 190 yards) run was won by Marin's Dr. George Branam in the time of 15 minutes, 50 seconds. His teammates, Robert Hope and Wes Hildreth, finished second and third in the time of 16:10 and 16:26, respectively.

Marin A. C. Coach Jim Imperiale said his club will enter more than 50 runners in the annual seven-mile Dipsea Race, Mill Valley to Stinson Beach, on Sept. 11.

Forty Niners All In Fold; Raiders Enjoy A Day Off

MORAGA (UPI) — Linebacker Karl Rubke has signed his 1960 contract, thus bringing all the San Francisco Forty Niners into the fold.

The team worked out in a double session yesterday. Coach Red Hickey said he was pleased with last Saturday's big Forty Niner scrimmage, but added that the team still is not ready for their first contest of the new season against the Dallas Cowboys in Seattle next Sunday.

There will be no further squad cutting until after the Seattle contest Hickey announced. The squad now stands at 50.

SANTA CRUZ (UPI)—The Oakland Raiders resumed practice today after taking a one-day rest. The team went fishing yesterday and caught about 400 pounds of rock fish.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz and the team studied movies of Sunday's loss to the Dallas Texans last night. The coach indicated he would use the films as the basis for some squad cuts soon.

The coach also announced that tackle John Harris, recently cut by the Los Angeles Chargers, will be given a tryout. Tackle Fred Fehn rejoined the squad after recovering from a torn leg muscle.

Nicasio Softballers Win Fifth Straight

Nicasio's softball team chalked up its fifth straight victory Sunday, 4-1, over the Old Fashioned team of San Rafael at Nicasio's diamond.

Next Sunday Nicasio hosts a Petaluma team.

Qualifying Dates For M.V. Golf Set In October

Malcolmn Brown, professional at the Mill Valley golf course, today announced that players may qualify for the Mill Valley city golf championship Oct. 8 through 16. Originally qualifying dates were Aug. 27 through Sept. 5.

Brown expects an exceptionally good field to compete in the tournament this year. First round matches are scheduled to start Oct. 23 over the sporty southern Redwood Empire layout.

Redwood Grid Tickets Sell At Bargain Price

Redwood High School Benchwarmers Club yesterday kicked off a season-ticket sales campaign for the school's 1960 football season that looks like quite a bargain.

A season ticket, priced at $4, will admit bearer and his entire family into Redwood's five home varsity games, according to Benchwarmer President Ned Griffith. The "Family Plan" Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Benchwarmers Club.

LOVELY TO LOOK AT on a summer's day are, from left, Mesdames Robert Byrnes and Norman Sanguinetti, who will be two of the models for the St. Hilary's Women's Club "Fashions Over Ice" to be held on Aug. 8 at Keil Cove in Tiburon. The two club members are pictured in the gardens of the Keil estate during a planning meeting for the forthcoming show.

SHAKESPEARE'S "A MIDSUMMER Night's Dream" comes to mind in this setting in the Keil gardens with four models from St. Hilary's Club rehearsing for the show which will feature past, present and future costumes from the Ice Follies. From left are Mesdames Robert Trieber, Robert Byrnes, Norman Sanguinetti and Robert Shannon. Several members from the cast of Shipstads and Johnson's Ice Follies of 1960 will participate in the Aug. 8 show.

St. Hilary's 'Ice' Show Set Aug 8

All of the glamour of the spectacular Ice Follies will come to Keil Cove in Tiburon on Monday, Aug. 8.

Members of the cast of the show currently at Winterland in San Francisco will be there.

Past participants including many familiar names will be there. A contingent of children talented on the ice will represent a brief glimpse into future Ice Follies.

Costumes of past Follies, costumes from this year's show and a preview of costumes to be worn in next year's 25th anniversary show will be on display.

In other words, everything but the ice will be at the beautiful Keil Estate when St. Hilary's Women's Club presents "Fashions Over Ice."

In addition to the costumes, a San Rafael and Novato shop will show a preview of things to come in the world of fashion for autumn.

Not to be outdone by the costumes and the fall styles is the brilliant array of exotic flowers surrounding the tennis courts where the show will be presented.

A shuttle service will leave from the Tiburon Playhouse parking lot starting at 12:15 p.m. and refreshments will be served prior to the show.

Richard Dwyer, star of the Ice Follies of 1960, will be master of ceremonies and commentating for the costumes portion of the show will be Mrs. Robert Eaton, manager of the Hollywood new costume shop.

Among the previous star and Ice Follettes who will model are Miss Ruby Maxson, who skated for several years with her twin brother, Bobby, and Mrs. Ray Schramm who with her husband owns the Raydine Ice Skating School in San Anselmo. Other past members who are from Marin and will model are Mrs John Maxson, of Tiburon, sister-in-law of Ruby, Mrs. Marston Thall of San Anselmo, Mesdames Carl Clark and William Kothgassner of San Rafael.

From San Francisco will come Mesdames Joseph Sullivan, and Joseph McDermott.

In addition to Dwyer, several members of this year's cast will participate. They are Marin County residents, Miss Marcia Sandidge, niece of Mrs. Thall; Miss Carol Coverly, Ketchikan Kitty, in the Alaska USA number, Miss Janet Champion, 15-year-old star and Ice Follette, Miss Beverly Kudlack.

Representing a wide variety of ages from pre-schoolers to teenagers and also modeling will be children of the previous members of the cast. They are Hetti Schramm, Lynn Thall, Linda Kothgassner, Kathleen Clark, Denise Maxson, Terri McDermott, Patsy Sullivan, and Pam Schullek.

MODELING ICE FOLLIES costumes worn during the days when they were with the Follies are, Ruby Maxson, seated, and Mrs. Ray W. Schramm, standing. Master of ceremonies for the show will be Richard Dwyer, star of the Ice Follies.

Paris Has New Carnival Of Color

By GAY PAULEY

PARIS (UPI) — Paris designers promised a new carnival of color today to brighten drab winter days ahead.

But don't give that little black dress or basic black suit to the Salvation Army yet

Jean Desses, Jacques Esterel and Gabrielle Chanel were scheduled to show their collections. Balenciaga and De Givenchy will catch store buyers only this week and early next week. The shows for fashion reporters will be held later next month.

Some of the combinations spotlighted in yesterday's fall and winter collection by Michel Goma include a pale turquoise coat over a lavender suit; a lemon yellow coat over a plum dress; and overblouse of pale blue-green worn with a suit of deep olive drab, and above elbow gloves of purple satin with a lime velvet formal.

Every designer except Yves St. Laurent of the House of Dior turned his new collection into an artist's palette. St. Laurent showed a preference for "dimmed" colors and the designer said that "the new woman can dispense with most bright, strong tones. Black is the star color."

But the color chart at Jean Patou's was typical of that of most other collections. The huges ranged from coral, pale pink, nasturtium yellow, caramel, plum, gold, and sulphur yellow to emerald, bright and crude greens, navy blues, blue-mauve, purple, brown muted red, bright red, gray and white, and some black.

EXCLAIMING OVER hats and dresses which will be among the many sale articles at the 14th Annual Bolinas Bazaar and Rummage Sale on Aug. 6, 7, and are, from left, Mesdames Frances Wilkins, Don Ingermann and Lynwood Howard. The sale will be held at the Bolinas Community Center.

THE SEWING GROUP and practitioners of other handicrafts have been producing items such as these pot holders and stuffed clowns and kittens throughout the year in anticipation of the Sale. From left, Mesdames W. H. Goddard, L. B. Petan and A. F. Teixeira.

St. Agnes Court Plans Barbecue

The Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Agnes 1428, will hold a chicken barbecue on Saturday, Aug. 6, at the home of Mrs. D. R. Mercer in San Anselmo.

There will be a social hour from 6 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. with dinner being served immediately after.

Chairman for the affair is Mrs. E. T. Morrison and as her co-chairman Mrs. D. R. Mercer.

The committee members who are working to make this a success are Mesdames H. D. Barnes, W. J. McPartland, Stephen Ures, Tom Little, Orville Kemp, Fred Battaglia, A. J. Ludditt, R. P. Devlin. Financial chairman is Mrs. T. J. Artz.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Mercer.

The Ernest Ceresas Welcome A Son

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Ceresa of Merced are announcing the birth of a son, Jeffrey Lowell, on July 23 at Mercy Hospital in Merced. Mrs. Ceresa is the former Virginia MacCubbin. Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. MacCubbin of Corte Madera are the maternal grandparents.

DISPLAYING the further versatility of sale items as these shell and driftwood pieces are members of the Bolinas committee, from left, Mesdames Arthur Carpenter, Edwin Manheim and Marilyn Miller.

The Flat, Steam-Rollered Look Triumphant In Paris Showings

By GAY PAULEY

PARIS (UPI)—A Paris fashion salon is no place for Marilyn Monroe. Curves struck out with French dress designers this week.

The flat, steam-rollered look emerged triumphant, although a few designers refused to go along. Pierre Balmain, Lanvin Castillo and Gabrielle (Coco) Chanel, for instance, let girls look like girls.

But at most houses the bust was de-emphasized, the waistline dropped, and the hemline lowered.

It must be said, however, that the new hemlines down one to two inches from last season, or enough to hide the knees, are more flattering to most of us women. The knees are not the prettiest part of the feminine anatomy.

Strongest, and probably the most powerful, booster of the flat look was the House of Dior.

Yves Mathieu St. Laurent, the young designer who took over two years ago when Christian Dior died, introduced a straight and tubular silhouette with curves nowhere but in the skirt shapes. These were bubbles and flounces which created what one fashion editor appropriately named the "Lollipop Look." The candy stick represented the upper three-quarters of the figure.

Waistlines in most collections seesawed from normal to several inches below. They fell lowest at Dior's, often joined to the skirt right where women are the widest.

Dior went it alone with hemlines, keeping them high enough to cut right across the kneecap of the mannequins.

Most collections produced a secondary theme—a nostalgia which carried designers back to the 1930's, and in isolated instances, on back to the vamp days of Theda Bara. Black fox formed high-rising collars, and was made into cuffs.

Mink, sable and chinchilla were used just as frequently.

Thirty-eight members of the Paris high fashion syndicate showed their fall and winter collections this week.

Gabrielle Chanel is not a member, but invited journalists in, anyway. Hubert de Givenchy and Cristobal Balenciaga, syndicate members, scheduled their showings later in August.

But word from the De Givenchy show today for United States store buyers was of a feminine silhouette accenting the normal waistline with leather belts for day clothes, jewelled belts for evening. Givenchy lowered the hemline slightly from last year, enough to hide the knees.

When all the tumult and shouting died, the most talked-about new collections were Dior's, for the controversial silhouette; Lanvin Castillo's for its beauty and elegance of fabric and line; Pierre Cardin's for its originality; Chanel's for its consistency, and Jacques Esterel's for liveliness.

To sum up, this is the way Paris couturiers see women dressed this fall and winter.

—Head. The hair straight, flat to the skull, with tendrils pulled forward over the cheeks, their only chance to escape from the enveloping helmets and cloches dug up from the 1930's, or the spiral and dome shapes of the 1960's. And Dior again the exception, showing models in high-piled chignons.

—Neckline. Suits and coats, either collarless or with large collars, some cape-size. Instead of filling in the neckline with the traditional two-, three- or four-strand necklace, designers wrapped furs, beaver, fox, mink and sable boas around the neck. Jewelled pins went on the shoulder.

—Sleeves. All the sleeveless woolen dresses under jackets or coats. Jacket sleeves ended at the middle of the forearm. Coat sleeves, bulky, often set deep as the waistline, rarely reaching all the way to the wrist.

—Bustline, waistline, hipline and hemline—discussed above.

MR. AND MRS. PETER O'Hagan leave St. Rita's Catholic Church in Fairfax following their recent marriage. The bride is the former Joan Hegarty of San Anselmo. (Don Faulkner photo)

Joan Hegarty Bride Of Peter O'Hagan

In a recent single ring ceremony at St. Rita's Catholic Church in Fairfax before an altar decorated with white stock, Joan Hegarty of San Anselmo became the bride of Peter O'Hagan of San Francisco.

Officiating for the 9 a.m. ceremony was the bride's uncle, Rev. Fintan Keegan of Omaha, Neb.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hegarty of Boston and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Hagan of Lurgan, County-Arnagh, Ireland.

Given in marriage by Edward O'Bid of San Anselmo, the bride wore a ballerina gown of white cotton embroidered organdy fashioned with scoop neckline, long sleeves and fitted bodice. Her coronet of white roses caught a shoulder length veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Patricia O'Bid of San Anselmo, as maid of honor, wore a light pink organdy ballerina gown. She had a pink satin bandeau with circular veil and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

James Deasy of San Francisco was best man.

A reception for 25 guests followed the ceremony at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera.

For a wedding trip to Carmel, the bride wore a navy suit with beige accessories and white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from St. Gregory's High School in Boston and from the Boston Bryant and Stratton Business College. She is the sister of Mrs. Frank Echerk of Lynn, Mass., and Patricia, James and Kevin Hegarty of Boston.

The bridegroom was educated in Ireland and is employed with Caputo-Chapman Contractors in San Francisco.

The couple will make their home in San Francisco.

SUSAN MUNSON MOORE PLANS WEDDING AUG. 28 IN TIBURON

A late August wedding is the plan of Susan Munson Moore, whose engagement to Rene Michael Accornero was announced at a family dinner party Friday evening, at the Belvedere Lagoon home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Moore.

The bride was graduated from Tamalpais High School and from Mills College in 1958. More recently she has been doing graduate work at the University of Washington, where she met her future bridegroom, who was also in the graduate school.

Rene is a graduate of Balboa High School, San Francisco and California Polytechnic State College in San Luis Obispo. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Baldo S. Accornero of San Francisco.

The young couple plan to live in Davis following their marriage, where he will attend the Veterinary College and Susan will become a research assistant at the same school.

Susan has two brothers, Roy, a student at Redwood High School and Bill, who will be a senior at Stanford University this fall. Her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moore of Pasadena, and her maternal grandmother is Mrs. J. A. Russell of San Anselmo.

The future bridegroom has one brother, Ronald, who resides with his wife in San Francisco. His paternal grandmother is Mrs. Renato Accornero and his maternal grandmother is Mrs. Elsie Coccary, both of San Francisco.

The afternoon nuptials are planned for 3 o'clock Aug. 28, at St. Hilary's Catholic Church in Tiburon.

Mrs. Marple Will Be Installed Pocahontas For Genessee

Genessee Council No. 180, Degree of Pocahontas, will install their officers on Friday commencing at 9 p.m. Mrs. Harold Marple will be installed as Pocahontas for the coming year. Assisting her will be Mrs. George Bowers as Wenonah. Others to be installed with Mrs. Marple are: Mrs. Violet Houk, prophetess; Mrs. Anna Keelan, powhatan; Mrs. Julia Tartaul, keeper of records; Mrs. C. L. Winegarden, collector of wampum; Mrs. Mary Walls, keeper of wampum; Mrs. Joseph Scheikele, musician, and Thelma Fitzmorris, trustee.

Mrs. Lottie Jackson, deputy great pocahontas from Onetah Council No. 96 of Richmond, will be the installing officer. With her will be a corps of deputy great pocahontases from Bay Area councils.

Mrs. George Bowers is chairman of the evening. Assisting her will be Mrs. H. E. Wall and Mrs. John Locati. They will also have charge of the decorations and refreshments.

At the last regular meeting delegates to the convention to be held in Fresno were elected. These are Mrs. Edward Clinton, Mrs. Locati, Miss Fitzmorris and Mrs. Joseph Zappella.

A 7:30 p.m. meeting will be held prior to the installation.

Camp Fire Girls Conclude Cooking Classes With Party

Tropical punch and chocolate meringue cookies were only part of the tempting refreshments served by the Camp Fire Girls who had just completed their cooking class Friday afternoon at College of Marin.

The class, which was sponsored by the Camp Fire Girls of Marin County, was taught by Miss Virginia Shattuck, who is home economist for Pacific Gas and Electric Co. This class, under the guidance of Miss Shattuck, has become an annual event, having been given every summer for the past 10 or more years, with the same sponsors, and at the same location.

The girls, ranging in ages from 10 to 12 years, attended class for six days, learning to cook a complete breakfast, lunch, and dinner, plus making all of the refreshments which they served to their mothers on the last day.

Certificates of completion for those attending at least 10 of the 12 hour course were given to 16 girls, who were Michelle and Patricia Mallory, Gail Marshik, Betsy Ford, Vicky Basco, Linda Menke, Becky Kettenhofer, Susan Tate, Linda Viereno, Kari Norskog, La Verne and La Vonne Conway, Jeanne Campagna, Chrissie Van Wart and Martha Slivka.

Other girls who attended for from four to eight hours were Karen Kelso, Arlene Anderson, Lori Siemens, Kay Wagner, Karen Mickleson, Claudia Kling, Janet Epidendio and Maureen Schwab.

Mothers' Milk Bank Needs More Donors

An appeal for mother's milk is being conducted by the Marin Committee of the Mothers' Milk Bank, Inc. of San Francisco. The need for mother's milk is always present and especially now when the number of donors is extremely low.

The milk bank was organized by the Baby Hygiene Committee of the American Association of University Women. It is the only such milk bank in the West. The milk is provided for premature and sick infants upon the request of a physician. Nursing mothers, who have surplus milk, are paid for donating to the milk bank.

The Marin Committee was organized to secure donors and transport the milk to San Francisco where it is pooled, pasteurized, frozen and then dispensed without charge to the recipients. Volunteers drivers are also needed.

Officers of the Marin committee were recently elected. They are Mrs. George Error, chairman; Mrs. James V. Farley Jr., publicity chairman and secretary; Mrs. Josiah N. Knowles and Mrs. David Hudson, motor corps chairmen; Mrs. Thomas Rappsilber, registered nurse. All prospective donors or those who wish to serve with the committee are asked to contact Mrs. Error who resides in San Rafael.

Second Daughter For Blakneys Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harold Blakney Jr. of San Rafael are announcing the births of a second daughter, whom they have named Nancy Dianna. She was born on July 27 at Children's Hospital in San Francisco and is the sister of Linda Arden, 4, and Johnny Harold, 2. The children's mother is the former Tora Margaret Beeker.

Grandparents are the senior J. Harold Blakneys of Montclair, N.J. and the Kurt Beekers of Chicago, Ill.

NUPTIAL RITES AT PRESIDIO

Following their marriage in the chapel of the Presidio of San Francisco Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Hungiville left by jet for a week's honeymoon in Hawaii. The bride, the former Diane Pollock Talmage of Phoenix, Ariz. is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pollock of Mill Valley. A graduate of Tamalpais High School, she attended College of Marin. She has been doing TV commercials on a Phoenix station.

The new bendict is an investment broker in Phoenix. Officiating at the wedding was Chaplain Paul Pease of the Presidio. Only family members and a few close friends were present at the ceremony.

Mrs. Van Pelt Here To Visit Son, Family

Mrs. Helen Van Pelt, landscape architect, former Marin resident, is here for two or three weeks to visit her son, David, who is with the Marin County Planning Commission, his wife and sons at their ranch at Nicasio.

Mrs. Van Pelt and her daughter, Mary, recently moved from Albuquerque, N.M. to Baldwin Hills in Los Angeles. Tonight Mrs. Van Pelt is attending a meeting of the Marin Conservation League, of which she is and honorary vice president, at the home of Mrs. Norman B. Livermore.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Aug. 2, the 215th day of the year, with 151 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning stars are Mars and Mercury.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1824, New York City fathers opened a new avenue, from Art Street to 13th Street. Its name: Fifth Avenue.

In 1858, Boston and New York installed the first street letter boxes for collection of mail.

In 1914, Russia invaded Germany and Germany invaded France, Belgium and Luxembourg.

In 1923, President Warren Harding died in a San Francisco hotel.

In 1934, on the death of President Paul Von Hindenburg, Adolph Hitler proclaimed himself dictator of Germany.

A thought for today: German Dictator Adolph Hitler said: "I know that one is able to win people far more by the spoken than by the written word, and that every great movement on this globe owes its rise to the great speakers and not to the great writers."

Welcome To Visitors Here For Baseball Play-Offs

Let us extend a belated welcome today to the visitors in our community in connection with the California State Semi-Pro Baseball Championship play-offs.

The welcome is belated for the play-offs began Friday night with a double-header at Albert Field in San Rafael, followed by triple-headers Saturday and Sunday.

The final first round play comprised another double-header last night.

In the second round beginning tonight, teams that lose for the second time will be eliminated.

Play will continue until all save the championship team has lost twice.

The winning team will get $1,000 cash plus a trip to Wichita, Kansas, to compete in the National Baseball Congress championships.

If you have followed the tournament here in the I-J Sports pages, you know that the brand of baseball played by these semi-pros is often as good as the best. A sprinkling of former professional players are participating, some with phenomenal records as semi-pros.

The teams—from Los Angeles, San Jose, Travis Air Force Base (Fairfield) and Tiburon—are the cream of semi-pro baseball in California.

The Tiburon Pelicans, "Marin's Own," sported a remarkable record of nine wins and only one loss as they started the tournament.

While it is our primary intention in this space today to welcome the visitors, we do not want to ignore nor overlook our own Marin teams.

To the visitors let us say that we hope they enjoy their visit to Marin. We hope they like our picturesque country-side. Since we are trying to build up our tourist and visitor business here, we hope they find their housing accommodations to their liking.

We hope that they like us and our community well enough to want to return another time at some future date. And we hope they are sufficiently impressed to tell their friends what a nice place Marin County is.

A final word to our Marin readers: If you haven't been down to Albert Field to see the kind of baseball these fellows play, don't put it off any longer. Drop over this evening.

Count Our Blessings

These late July days when the sky is overcast until 11 o'clock and the thermometer hovers in the low sixties, Marinites are apt to become annoyed with the weather and wonder aloud whether it is ever going to warm up.

And in the afternoons when the wind blows from the ocean, cooling Marin and later on swirling the fog around Tamalpais, these same people will have harsh words about our climate.

Well, these worry-warts can cheer up in the knowledge that our hot weather is ahead in September and October. In the meantime, we should count our blessings.

In the Mid-west and East people are sleeping outside on the lawns or clutching a pillow soaked with perspiration. They would think Marin's weather was pretty nice about now.

BOY, 7, DRIVES OFF AUTO

"What am I going to do with him?" asked one frustrated mother when police brought her 7-year-old boy home. They caught him taking a joy ride in somebody else's automobile.

"I don't know where he learned to drive," was her helpless comment after she heard that the youngster had taken off in a car that he found unattended at a service station.

The opportunity was too much for the little boy to resist. He hopped in, turned on the ignition and drove 11 blocks without mishap. But a dead-end street proved too much for him. He din't know how to turn around.

Most mothers sooner or later reach the "What am I going to do with him?" stage in raising children. Relieving their bewilderment is not easy. But they are on their way to a happy solution if they first recognize the fascinating power that God entrusts to every child and then gently direct it into constructive channels rather than suppress it.

"A young man according to his way, even when he is old he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

Give us the vision, O Lord, to recognize the great good You have hidden in young people.

No Wonder Girls Rush To Marry Statistics Are Against 'Em

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

It's no wonder girls are more in a hurry to marry than boys—age counts against them more. At 30 she only has 55 chances out of a hundred. At 30, a man still has 72 chances out of 100 of finding a mate.

Despite the outcry against conformity, we aren't a people satisfied to live as in the past. The U.S. Patent Office gets about 90,000 applications a year for new products, processes and gadgets invented to improve our way of life.

One of the privileges of being president of the United States is that you are traditionally immune from being arrested—at least while you are in office.

Now that the whooping crane appears to be slowly winning its fight for survival, bird lovers hope the trumpeter swan will start blowing its own bugle again. It is believed that fewer than 1,000 trumpeter swans are left in America.

When coffee was first introduced into the American colonies in 1667, it was so expensive only the rich could afford it.

Our quotable notables: "Grief can take care of itself," said Mark Twain, "but to get the full value of joy you must have somebody to share it with."

Marry a blue-eyed girl if you want a wife who won't be easily hurt. Blue-eyed people are least sensitive to pain, brown-eyed people most sensitive.

ANOTHER THING about eyes: Tests confirm the old folk belief that liars are generally more shifty-eyed than honest men. On the other hand veteran cops say bold criminals often develop an unflinching gaze—probably as a self-defense.

A timeless wisecrack: "The extreme penalty of bigamy," a British lord chief justice once remarked, "is two mothers-in-law."

If you collect odd words, here's an unusual one for you—"toxophilite." It sounds like someone with a disease, but it actually means "a devotee of archery."

APT DEFINITION: "A bachelor," says actor Walter Slezak, "is a guy who has to fix only one breakfast before going to work"

It was Socrates who advised, "The nearest way to glory is to strive to be what you wish to be thought to be."

Water Plan Running Into Difficulties

By DE VAN L. SHUMWAY

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's $1.75 billion water development program—one of the largest ever conceived by man—is running into difficulties even before it goes before the voters.

The program was approved by the 1959 Legislature as a bond issue to be put before the voters in November of this year. It called for a gigantic aqueduct system to carry water from Northern to Southern California.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS came from separate sources:

—Reports turned in by two Eastern consulting firms hired by the state at a cost of $555,000 to make an independent analysis of the water plan.

—Statements to newsmen by Harvey O. Banks, Director of Water Resources, and Ralph Brody, special counsel to Brown on water.

—A statement by Adolph J. Ackerman, of Madison, Wis., who was a member of California's board of consulting engineeers on aqueduct routes.

The consulting firms tossed the first bombshell by proposing two-stage construction of the water program. They said the first stage should be the main aqueduct to take water from the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta to Southern California and the second stage should include construction of the huge Oroville dam on the Feather River.

THE KEY REASON for postponing construction of Oroville dam, an earthfill structure planned to be 735 feet high and cost $456,630,000, was the prospect of inflation.

The state, in planning the original program, had not taken inflation into account. Banks told newsmen, in fact, that trying to project inflationary costs in the future would be "playing a hazardous guessing game."

Dillon, Read and Co., financial consultants, agreed and pointed out that the federal government takes the same course on its projects—projecting prices on the basis of current costs and filling the gap later if inflation raises costs.

The financiers made three major points:

1. The water program can be constructed with available money "unless considerable inflation in construction costs develops during the construction period."

2. The state can market the bonds proposed to finance the project at a "reasonable cost and without material impact upon the state's credit."

3. It is not possible at this time to determine if the state can recover its investment through marketing water and power from the project.

CHARLES T. MAIN Inc., of Boston, engineering consultants, had one assurance to add: The project itself is feasible from an engineering standpoint.

Banks and Brody, at a news conference, said that they agreed with the engineers: The state should start on the aqueduct system as soon as possible and build Oroville dam on the current schedule only if it turns out the state has the money.

Banks raised the possibility that Oroville could be built without tapping the water revenues. He said his agency was investigating two alternative plans:

—Constructing the dam under revenue bonds first authorized in 1933 as part of the Central Valley Project and still outstanding.

—Building Oroville in stages, beginning with a lower concrete dam to provide "urgently needed" flood control benefits and adding water conservation and power facilities at a later date.

IN ANOTHER development, Ackerman repeated urging that the state tell the truth about financial aspects of the water plan. He charged that important financial studies had been withheld "apparently because it was felt that such publication would open a Pandora's Box."

Brody and Banks both were rumored to be ready to resign their top state jobs and they took the unusual action of commenting on the rumors.

Brody said he plans to leave state service after the November election to accept a financially attractive job elsewhere and Banks said he had "no plans at this time" to quit.

Senate Session Actually Will Be Part Of Presidential Campaign

CHICAGO (AP) — The politicians, now that their two big conventions are over, will get an extraordinarily fast chance to try to make good on their high-sounding promises here and in Los Angeles.

Congress must return Aug. 8 to complete its unfinished business. It took a vacation during the conventions. The unfinished business happens to involve some of the most important promises in both the Democratic and Republican platforms.

For instance: Aid to education and raising the minimum wage. If the advocates of civil rights, the most heated issue in both platforms, try to get action on that subject they may make a shambles of what is scheduled to be a three-week session.

USUALLY CONGRESS in a campaign year completes its work before the conventions start. This gives the politicians until the following January — when the next Congress takes over—to produce on the big campaign talk.

This year Congress did such a meager job between January and the time it recessed in July, it had to return. But this upcoming session will be doubly extraordinary.

Three of the two parties' four top candidates will be working in the Senate. Because the whole country will be watching, their Senate activities will actually be part of their campaign.

President Eisenhower, anxious for a Republican victory, will have a hand in things which could range from holding conferences with congressional leaders to posing for pictures with Richard M. Nixon, the Republicans' presidential nomineee.

Nixon, as vice president, will preside over the Senate, his usual role. Behind the scenes, of course, he'll be putting the heat on his fellow Republicans to see things his way.

FACING HIM all the while will be Sens. John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B Johnson, who were given the No. 1 and No. 2 spots on the Democrats' ticket at their Los Angeles convention.

Nixon's vice presidential running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, can return temporarily to his job as U. S. ambassador to the United Nations.

AMONG THE MEASURES Congress left pending when it went on vacation were a minimum wage bill and another to give federal aid to education. On both these issues the Democratic and Republican platform promises differ.

The Democrats called for raising the minimum wage—which applies to workers in interstate commerce — from $1-an-hour to $1.25. The Republicans pledged support to raising the minimum, but didn't say how high.

Actually, before Congress recessed the Republicans were balking at anything higher than $1.15 and it wasn't clear they would even go for that.

Since the Democrats have big majorities in House and Senate they have the numbers to pass a $1.25 minimum wage bill. If it's too high for his taste, Eisenhower could veto it. That would kill it for 1960 if the Democrats weren't able to muster the necessary two-thirds vote to overcome the veto.

But if Eisenhower uses the veto for such a purpose—and makes it stick—he'll hurt Nixon with organized labor which supports the 25-cent boost in the minimum wage.

On education the Republicans advocate federal aid for school construction but not for teachers' salaries. The Democrats promised help not only in building classrooms but in paying teachers, too.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ELLEN FERNANDEZ

Remember Your Seasick Pills Before Boarding Hamilton Jet

SO YOU'RE GOING for a jet ride at Hamilton Air Force Base. You load the camera with color film and borrow another fancy one and load it. You clean the cameras and check them out. You aren't really thinking of the jet.

Then a friend says: "Call me and tell me when—and how—you got back."

And Lloyd Bowen from the Sugar Plum Tree next door walks into the office with your lunch, and an unheard of service. He's even added a piece of home made candy. You think of the last supper.

You drive out of Novato and Doris Campbell stands in front of the real estate office and screams "Have fun — and goodb-y-y-y-y."

THE GUY who is going to pilot you is an old friend, Maj. Phil Coady. You get fitted into an all-encompassing helmet and they make sure the oxygen is coming in and you can hear through the earphones.

They fit you for a baggy flight suit, and a baggier life jacket and the baggiest parachute.

You sign the paper saying you don't hold the government responsible if something goes just a little bit wrong.

You clamber into the cockpit, wrench yourself into the parachute harness, under the safety belts, hook on the toggle which would pull the chute at low altitudes.

Then they start telling you what to do—just in case. Pull out the seat pins so the seat can eject, pull in your legs so they'll go if you go, pull this, pull that, make sure the canopy is off, and if necessary you'll go v-o-o-o-o-m!

Now if you're over water, you must remember to pull this for the life jacket, and if the parachute doesn't open automatically, pull that. And when you hit, pull that to get rid of the chute harness, 'cause they won't pick you up if you're still in the chute.

"GOT IT ALL straight?" All you can think of is you won't be able to hang onto the cameras. And you hope you don't have to go out over the water 'cause the film will get all wet.

You still aren't thinking too much of the flight itself. Taxi to the end of the runway and take off. It's not too different from the sensation of taking off in other planes, as Coady gently eases her up.

This is a T-33, a training plane, what once was called the F-80, when jets were newer and slower.

Coady is in front of you, explaining the dials, gauges, buttons, pointing out spots on the earth and sea below. It's like riding in a sports car after having ridden in the Cadillac airliners and Model T light planes.

You move up to the clouds and swish. You start taking pictures as she rolls so you're upside down. The camera becomes heavier and heavier until you're straining to keep it at eye level, even with the slight pull of only two G's or less.

YOU MAY SOAR toward San Jose, come north again across Marin and head into Sonoma county, circling to watch the fog or a forest fire or another plane. You move toward Sacramento and see the thunderheads toward the Sierras.

You do a few more rolls, even try one yourself. And suddenly your stomach rebels and you ask Coady to take it easy. You assure him that it is not a hint to come down.

You've been up an hour and it seems like minutes.

Coady does a GCA approach, explaining what is happening and how, the sounds and feeling of flaps and air.

He cuts off and zooms in for a go around before landing. And suddenly you say to him "I'm turning green." He doesn't hear you and you have to say it again.

There aren't any cannisters and he hands back a map. You can't find the combination to the oxygen mask, pulling and tugging. It won't come off. By now all you can do is keep your mouth closed and say mmhhm or uhuuh.

That mask isn't going to come off. You swallow and swallow again. "I can do anything after that," you say to Coady, who admits later that the comment almost turned him green.

Suddenly you feel fine again and want to keep on flying. But the ground is close, and soon you're on it again. You've been up an hour and 45 minutes.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Surgery Is Possible Cure For Repeat Sex Offenders

Can sex offenders reform? Or must they always repeat their crimes? We parents have a stake in the prevention of sex offenses.

Most of the offenders are normal, physically. Did you know that? Their glands function propertly. They don't inherit their tendencies. They acquire them.

Most sex criminals were raised in bad homes. They felt they weren't wanted. Perhaps one parent indulged them while the other beat them. Maybe their parents were alcoholics. In a surprising number of cases their mothers were promiscuous. Many of their fathers had criminal records.

Somewhere along the line they were introduced to sex offenses. Between the ages of 9 or 10 or 15 and 16, children are vulnerable. What they learn may stick. Sex criminals were taught the wrong things during those years. They were the victims of older sex criminals. Now their offenses are their way of life. The majority of their crimes are not reported. They make friends with similar offenders. They prey on children and other adults.

Can they reform? Yes, many can. Several things are needed. (1) They must sincerely want to change. (2) They must receive the proper medical treatment. (3) They must receive help from qualified psychiatrists. Several states now have treatment centers for sex criminals. A fair percentage of the inmates reform.

There is another method, surgery. Most doctors disagree, but I've checked the research carefully. I've followed a group of more than 60 chronic sex criminals who were given surgical treatment. In ten years not one of them has committed another sex crime. Wem ust think again before we rule out surgery.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Should parents read their teenage daughter's diaries?"

(A) Normally I believe they should not. It helps some young people think clearly if they can write their thoughts out in their diaries. They can't do that if there's a chance their diaries will be read.

Highway 101 Widening Plan Due Hearing

San Rafael residents will get another chance to make themselves heard regarding the state's plans for Highway 101 through the city next Monday night.

Mayor John F. McInnis reminded last night that the city council will hold a special session to discuss the freeway plans at 8 p.m. next Monday.

Because a big turnout is expected (a former discussion packed the city council chambers, with some forced to stand in the hall outside), the meeting will be held in the San Rafael High School auditorium.

Speaker To Tell Prospects For Industry In Marin

A San Francisco investment broker will outline Marin's industrial future at a public luncheon meeting tomorrow in Novato.

Jack Block, Montgomery Street broker, envisions great industrial growth in the county in the next decade, as other San Francisco suburban counties become "saturated" with population and industry.

Block will speak after a luncheon sponsored by the Novato Chamber of Commerce at Cloud 5. He is a partner in the brokerage firm of Stewart, Eubanks and Myerson, San Francisco.

Mandatory TB Exam Held Legal

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk has ruled that if a person is suspected of having tuberculosis, and refuses to be examined by a health officer, the officer may force him to take the examination.

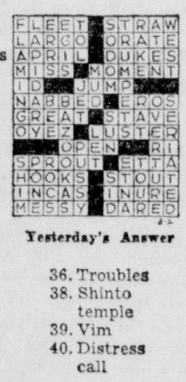

But Mosk said that a simpler procedure would be to issue a quarantine order.

If the tuberculosis suspect refused to observe the order, he could be prosecuted for contempt of court.

Revolution Started By Monarchy

By Associated Press

A quiet revolution has begun to change the government of the little country of Bhutan, tucked among the rugged folds of the eastern Himalayas.

It's an unusual revolution because it did not start among the 700,000 people of Bhutan. It was launched by the country's absolute monarch. It might make him less absolute.

Cut off from the world, Bhutan has been basically a feudal country whose government could order the people about at will. General reforms and a codification of laws are now beginning to give Bhutan the appearance of a modern system of government.

"We will have to draft a constitution— but there is no immediate rush," says Prime Minister Jigme Palden Dorji. "One presumes the reforms will continue whether we have a constitution or not."

The presumption is based on the apparent intentions of the man whom Dorji sometimes refers to as "the boss." He is the Druk Gyalpo (King) Jigme Dorji Wangchuk, 31. In the eight years he has been king, Wangchuk has made drastic changes in the system he inherited.

Power in this Buddhist nation was once shared between the Dharma Raja, a reincarnation of the country's supreme Lama, and the Deb Raja, an official chosen to handle civil affairs.

Fighting over the job of Deb Raja reduced it to a figurehead for powerful warlords who ruled provinces.

In 1907 the dominant governor was crowned as Bhutan's first hereditary king. He let other governorships fall vacant and cut down the size and influence of the Buddhist clergy.

When the Dharma Raja died about 30 years ago, no reincarnation was found. "We have never looked," says Dorji, and even if one were found "the institution is gone—we would not accept it."

With the old semi-religious system gone, the new kings since 1907 established personal rule. Their prime ministers lived outside Bhutan, working primarily as trade agents and having little responsibility for internal affairs. Although no hereditary nobility exists, Dorji succeeded his father and grandfather in the job but has never been formally confirmed.

The king has always mingled freely with his people. Every morning he hears complaints from anyone. This ancient system of royal audiences is both a healthy check on over-zealous local officials and a pointed reminder that the king is all-powerful.

But a way for the voice of the people regularly to be heard was lacking. Previous kings had had advisers. Wangchuk, who reads Western history and politics, named a permanent eight-man council. Its members, mostly civil servants but including a representative of the Buddhist hierarchy, advise the king but do not hold portfolios like a cabinet.

A few years ago Wangchuk went farther by creating the Tsongdu or National Assembly to advise him. He has not yet rejected its advice, although the advice apparently is often tempered by knowledge of what he wants.

The Tsongdu has acquired the authority to write letters to the government of India, which handles Bhutan's foreign relations. Under the king's influence, it prepared the first written laws of Bhutan. The laws end most forms of forced labor, standardize taxes and the administrative structure, regulate marriage and make other social reforms.

The Tsongdu meets in the spring and autumn. About one-quarter of the 130 members are government officials appointed by the king. The rest are elected by groups of village headmen, who in turn are elected on a one-family, one-vote system.

The lack of a direct elective system has created the only small cloud so far on the horizon of political development controlled by the king. It is the Bhutan National Congress, a shadow political party that exists only outside Bhutan.

The Congress primarily represents the Nepalis of southern Bhutan. They are second-class citizens, barred from living in the central highlands, despite the government's stated desire to integrate them with the highland Bhutanese. They have only 13.8 per cent of the Tsongdu seats although officially compose an estimated 25 per cent of the populatiton.

All known members of the Congress live in India. The strength of the party is apparently minute but impossible to determine exactly. "I refuse to acknowledge them," Dorji says.

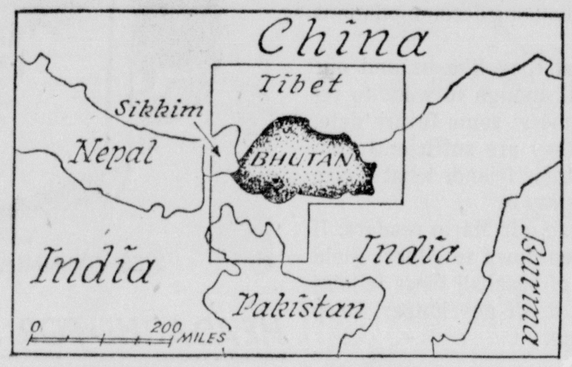

The greatest obstacle to any political party in Bhutan is the complete lack of political consciousness by the uneducated farmers in their isolated valleys. But the Druk Gyalpo Jigme Dorji Wangchuk has started a revolution that is changing this.

How much power Wangchuk will relinquish is uncertain. But he has pointed Bhutan in the direction of becoming a constitutional monarchy. In a decade or two this little hermit nation might make the jump from feudalism to democracy that took Western Europe some six centuries.

New Hampshire was the first of the 13 original states to have a government completely independent of Great Britain.

KING AND PEOPLE—Jigme Dorji Wangchuk, king of the tiny nation of Bhutan, speaks to a gathering of his people. Wangchuk is giving his country a modern system of government—which may eventually mean less power for himself.

CHANGING LAND—Map locates Bhutan in relation to India, Red China and neighboring Himalayan countries. A quiet revolution is changing the government of the isolated nation.

HAFB Unit Gets New Commander

Col. Reet P. Smith has taken over command of the 78th Air Base Group at Hamilton Air Force Base, replacing Col. Paulett Spivey.

Smith's latest assignment has been as chief of the weapons branch at Air Force headquarters in Washington, D.C. He also has been chief of flight operations at the Air Research and Development Command, Baltimore, Md.; chief of aircraft operations divisions and operations officer for materiel at the Air Force Missile Test Center at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla.

Smith, a 45-year-old Texan, has attended the Air Command and Staff College and the Armed Forces Staff College. He has been director of operations for the 43rd Air Division in the Far East, a flying instructor, squadron commander, operations officer and commander of an engineering squadron.

Spivey has left the post to become chief of operations for the Pacific Command in Honolulu.

Boy Hurt By Car

A 5-year-old San Rafael boy collided with a car Saturday, but suffered only cuts on his lower lip. Daniel P. Sheehan of 1109 Nye Street was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for the cuts after he colliided with a car driven by Ernest G. Holt of 320 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo, in the 1100 block of Mission Avenue in San Rafael. Holt told police the boy ran from between parked cars.

Cities League Hits Reapportionment, Backs Water Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The directors of the League of California Cities yesterday endorsed Gov. Edmund G. Brown's $1,750,000,000 water bond issue and "vigorously and completely" opposed Senate reapportionment.

The big water bond issue, Proposition 1 on the November ballot, was cited as being in conformity with the league's recommendations for the conservation, development and utilization of water resources.

Proposition 15, the so-called 20-20 plan of reapportionment, was condemned on grounds it would wreck the state's modified federal plan of legislative apportionment and deprive less populous areas of a voice in state policies.

Sept. 1 Opening Scheduled For Jack London Monument

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A mile up the hill from Glen Ellen, in the Valley of the Moon between Sonoma and Santa Rosa, the state will soon open the London Historical Monument.

This is the property where Jack London once roamed, built his dream house and saw it burn to the ground, experimented in ranching to his financial sorrow, where he wrote many of his books, and where he is buried.

Here on 40 acres the state will display the beauty of the great valley; the home of London's wife, where the author's South Seas collection is displayed; the ruins of his own Wolf House; and the site of his grave, high atop a knoll covered with oak and madrone. The opening is set for Sept. 1.

Perhaps the most impressive sight is the ruins of the Wolf House—great, stone ruins. London was building it midway up the mountain in a redwood grove, but never finished it.

Visible, however, are a number of huge rooms, and at least 14 large fireplaces. Two huge arched hallways on the north and south sides give good indication of the beauty the author was developing.

Alongside the east chimney, a redwood has edged its way to the ruins and now towers over the chimney. It probably was a sapling when London started the home early in this century.

The Valley of the Moon, however, has remained unchanged since the days of Jack London. Unmarred by human development, the forested and grassy area appears today just as it appeared to the author.

THEY SEEK 'MISS SONOMA' TITLE

200 Special Police To Patrol State Fair

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— About 200 special policemen will be looking for lost children again this year at the California State Fair and Exposition, from Aug. 31 to Sept. 11.

Last year the fair's special police returned 1,441 youngsters to their parents or groups.

Entertainer To Repeat Revue

The book section of the Novato Community Club will present a repeat performance of Jane Nickol's one- woman revue, "One Enchanted Evening," tomorrow at 8:30 at the clubhouse, 906 Machin Avenue.

Mrs. Nickols, who toured with the road show of the Rogers and Hammerstein hit, "South Pacific, presents selections from the show's score and dialogue in her review.

Her accompanist at the piano is Norman Porter. The tropical stage setting was designed by Mrs. Robin Cannon.

State Controller Deals In Really Big Sums

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Controller Alan Cranston runs a multi-million-dollar daily business.

During the 1959-60 fiscal year, the daily flow of money through his office averaged $22,123,769 for total disbursements of $5,530,942,336.

Bean Clam, Good Soup, Goes Begging

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Bean clams are there for the digging, but so far man hasn't taken much advantage of it.

The bean clam, in fact, is one of the few unexploited natural resources left in California, says the State Fish and Game Department.

The clams are only about three-quarters of an inch long, but gathered in quantity and brewed up they make an excellent clam soup, say those who have tried them.

There are billions of the clams laying around the beaches of Southern California waiting to be taken. Birds, surf fishes and other non-humans eat their fill, the department notes, but don't come near putting a dent in the supply.

Anyone can gather them, and there are no weight, size or season restrictions. If you're over 16, however, you'll need a regular fishing license.

TWO-HEADED LAMB? LOOK AGAIN

Camera angle makes George and Martha look like a two-headed lamb, but they are really two lambs, come to visit for a while at the Junior Museum of Marin. Young Mark Shackelford gets a feel of the wooly creatures who were born on Washington's birthday at the Gnoss ranch in Novato. The deer will be released on a game reserve, since the museum has a mounted fawn on display. The lambs are the first in a series of temporary displays of farm animals. (Independent-Journal photo)

State's Plan Would End Snarl At San Rafael Entry

San Rafael's jigsaw-puzzle entrance via Highway 101 will become a thing of the past by the Califonia Division of Highways' plan for converting the route to an eight-lane freeway, the San Rafael Rotary Club was told yesterday by R. A. Hayler, district engineer for the division.

Hayler outlined projected improvements between San Quentin Wye and the Puerto Suello Hill summit. Questions indicated the snarl at the city's southern entrances was of primary interest.

Francisco Boulevard on the east side, scene of the worst present trouble, will be deadended and diverted by a bridge across the canal to feed into Grand Avenue, Hayler said.

He said there would be on and off ramps, with the off-ramp leading into Irwin Street as now but with Irwin made into a one-way street.

"This is one of the main improvements we propose," said Hayler.

He stressed, however, that "development of San Rafael" could not be a consideration of the state, since its job is to improve Highway 101 to exit lanes.

He said that all the proposed improvements, comprising several alternatives, involve widening of the existing freeway.

"It is not feasible to go underground," said Hayler in touching on soil problems, "so we have to go up in the air. It's a way to solve the question of congestion."

Discussing the road in three sections, he said the widening works out best in each case to the westward.

From the San Quentin Wye to Irwin Street, he said, westward widening will be most economical and least disrupting.

Of the viaduct section, Hayler said it is planned to build a new viaduct alongside the existing highway, employing the present four lanes one-way and adding another four lanes by a separate structure to the westward. To doubledeck the present structure, he said, would be to increase costs greatly and to alter a construction never designed for such change.

From the viaduct to the top of Puerto Suello Hill the recommended plan is a widening of surface route, again west of the present highway.

Among Hayler's points were:

Average present Highway 101 traffic is now 38,000 vehicles a day to the south, 23,000 on the viaduct, and 40,000 to the top of the hill—with 15,000 turning off or on within San Rafael.

By 1980 it is expected that traffic will multpily about two an done-half times, with about 100,000 vehicles a day on either side of the city.

Sunday traffic was 50 per cent more than daily in 1950, but now it is only 20 per cent higher, with a possibility that in time the daily traffic will be greater than Sunday.

TINY SHETLAND PONY WEIGHS ONLY 26 LBS.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—No one expects a Shetland pony to be very large.

And a Shetland colt is pretty small too—usually about 40 to 50 pounds and around 35 inches high.

But the surprise of the North Royalton neighborhood is a male Shetland colt born last Friday to average Shetlands.

Little Nugget, as he has been dubbed, weighs only 26 pounds and stands only 21 inches high.

One of 17 ponies owned by the John D. Taylor family, the half-pint critter plays with the neighborhood children like a dog.

A CRUMB, IF YOU PLEASE

Nine-month-old Bill Griffin of Cleveland, Ohio, is so busy watching the photographer's "birdie" that he forgets to drop a crumb into the waiting gullet of a tame sparrow named Cheep. The bird has made his abode with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griffin since their 6-year-old son, Danny, found him two weeks ago. (AP Wirephoto)

San Quentin Camp Escapee Captured

A San Quentin Prison inmate who escaped from an isolated Shasta County conservation camp Saturday was captured Sunday at 7:45 p.m., 30 hours after his escape, by a camp officer and two deputy sheriffs.

Russell Miller, 28, serving a sentence for second degree burglary in San Diego County, was captured 15 miles from the Crystal Creek Conservation Camp near French Gulch.

Pontiff Removes 'Offensive' Phrases From Baptism Rites

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII has taken action to remove from Roman Catholic ritual phrases that may be considered offensive by persons of other faiths.

Authoritative Vatican sources disclosed yesterday that on Pope John's order the Congregation of Rites has eliminated certain phrases from the ritual of baptism for converts from Judaism, Mohammedism and other faiths.

If a person had been a pagan, the priest would tell him to "hold in horror idols, reject images."

If a person had been Jewish, he would be told to "hold in horror Hebrew perfidy" and to reject "Hebrew superstition."

If a person had been a Moslem, the priest would exhort him to "hold in horror Mohamedan perfidy" and reject "the wicked sect of infidelity."

If a person came from a Christian faith considered heretic, he would be told to "hold in horror the heretic wickedness" and to reject his former faith as a "sect of impious ones."

All these phrases have been abolished on Pope John's order.

Screams Of Woman Scare Off Prowler

The screams of Thelma R. Musto of 227 Drake Avenue, Marin City, routed a prowler from her bedroom Saturday.

She told sheriff's deputies she awoke about 2 a.m. and found a stranger reaching towards her. Her shouts awoke her husband, who dashed after the prowler. The man escaped in the darkness.

To Attend Conference

Russell F. Gatzke and Arthur S. Ramatici, staff manager and district agent in the San Rafael district agency of the Prudential Insurance Co., will attend the company's first leader's roundtable training conference at the Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Aug. 7-10.

Which is the Rambler?

(HINT: It's the compact car for people who are not)

On the left you see an unhappy victim of "stoop-over styling." The low roof and narrow door of this 1960 car make both entry and exit back-buckling maneuvers. It's a typical fault in the new compacts and some big 1960 cars, too.

But on the right, the same man alights with comfort and dignity because this is the 1960 Rambler 6—the car that's compact in exterior dimensions only. Rambler's high, wide doors eliminate grunting contortions.

It's just one indication of the way Ramblers are designed to give the most usefulness to the user.

Some other examples are Airliner Reclining Seats* that adjust to 5 different relaxing positions, including Travel Beds . . . sectional sofa front seats* that glide back and forth individually . . . Adjustable Headrests.*

RAMBLER OWNERS MOST LOYAL OWNERS

Useful, practical features like those described above, plus Rambler's basic excellence, make Rambler owners the most loyal car owners. This is proved by many surveys done by magazines and other such independent organizations. The most recent survey, of owners of 6-cylinder "low-priced" and compact cars, shows again that more Rambler owners are better pleased with their cars than owners of the other makes.

For example, Rambler owners are best satisfied of all with the interior dimensions of their cars . . . rate their cars tops in heating and ventilating efficiency . . . in trouble-free operation . . . high in performance and tops in over-all usefulness to the user. More Rambler owners rate their cars best in value for the money. More Rambler owners said they would buy the same make again.

RAMBLER IDEAS LEAD THE INDUSTRY

One example is Single-Unit† construction—a Rambler idea. Another is Deep-Dip† rustproofing—no other U.S. car offers this complete, inside-out protection against rust and corrosion.

Rambler brought out the original compact car in 1950. Although practically every car maker has come out with an imitation, Rambler sales have continued to soar—up 22% over last year.

Everyone knows that as volume goes up, sales costs come down. So, Rambler dealers can pass the savings on to you. Your Rambler dealer would like to help you save. See him today.
